McKenzie County Fair A Tradition of Fun, 4-H and Rodeo

By Jaimee Green

Cotton candy. Hot dogs. Folks tempting you to step right up and win a prize. Youth chaotically running with tickets in hand from one ride to the next. Shrills, screams and genuine laughter. Must be fair time!

For McKenzie County Fair Board members and volunteers, its crunch time as they are busily preparing for the annual fair taking place at the fairgrounds east of Watford City July 11-14.

This year's theme is "Bring out the Kid in You."

"The board thought this was a very appropriate theme because fairs are all about enjoying the simple pleasures of being young and silly. We want people to come to the fair and enjoy themselves," said Janel Lee, a board member.

General admission is a $5 button good for all three days.

Some of the entertainment highlights include a rodeo, carnival, Curly the Clown and Funtastic Kid Zone, the Olaf Leiseth Jr. Memorial Draft Horse Competition, Pinewood Derby Car Races, demolition derby, KIDDYUP Goat roping and youth lil' buckaroo rodeos.

Funtime Carnival Company, of Payette, Idaho will be supplying 24 attractions ranging from kiddies rides to whizzing and whirling rides, midway games and carnival food.

This year, new entertainment is on the venue and features NASCAR Remote Control Racing and Sports Zone. A 25 foot inflatable archway will beckon those with a need for speed to try their hand at racing through the small track in an attempt to speed past the competition to the finish line.

"We're pretty excited about this year. We have some really good entertainment lined up. With so many new members in the community we really wanted to create an experience for them and for everybody that really showcases what Watford City and our area is all about. There are a lot of young people who are going to be here and we wanted to offer them a great fair experience this year," said Tim Nelson, president of the fair board.

The traditional free beef barbecue is available to everyone wearing admission buttons and takes place on July 12.

This year's fair will include NASCAR Remote Control Racing and Sports Zone.

For folks who have never witnessed a draft horse competition, the excitement of watching the massive equine participate in a type of ag-olympics will offer excitement and awe. The annual competition is named after Olaf Leiseth, a long time draft horse teamster and member of the Long X Wagon Team.

Foot traffic at the local junkyard may have increased as drivers prospect for sturdy cars to enter into the third annual demolition derby which will feature drivers smashing vehicles into their opponents as they attempt to leave the arena with the last vehicle running.

Traditionally, the fair has played host to an extensive 4-H youth lineup of livestock showing.

"Our city has always been very big on promoting and supporting our 4-H youth program and its members. McKenzie County has a large program and we like to get our youth involved and keep them active by including their livestock showings and activities into the fair events," Lee said.

July 11 kicks off the four days of fun with 4-H activities starting at 10:00 a.m. and lasting throughout the evening.

On Thursday, July 12, 4-H exhibits for swine, goat, sheep, beef breeding and market beef will take place until 10:45 a.m. with judging of the open class taking place throughout the day.

Curly's Funtastic Kid Zone opens at 11:00 a.m. and Ice Cream in a Bag is back by popular demand with limited sessions at both 2:00 p.m. and 6:30 p.m.

The fair parade will make its way down Main Street starting at 4:00 p.m. and will be followed by the beef barbecue at 5:30 p.m.

Registration for the Olaf Leiseth Jr. Memorial Draft Horse Competition closes at 6:00 p.m. and the event takes place at 7:00 p.m. in the rodeo arena.

On Friday, July 13, commercial exhibits open at 9:00 a.m. and continue throughout the day.

Curley's Funtastic Zone reopens at 11:00 a.m. and KIDDYUP goat roping starts at 11:30 a.m.

Remote NASCAR racing starts at 12:30 p.m. in the Kids Zone and face painting is available at 1:00 p.m.

Youth involved in the 4-H exhibits will be presented awards at 1:00 p.m. and a livestock sale starts at 2:00 p.m.

At 3:00 p.m. a candy drop is taking place, sponsored by McKenzie Electric and the McKenzie County Fair.

At 4:30 the pinewood derby car races kick off with all participants needing to register by 3:30 p.m.

Registration for the demolition derby closes at 5:15 p.m. with car inspections following. The derby starts at 6:00 p.m.

On Saturday, July 14, registration for the Great County Fair Mud Run starts at 8:30 a.m. and benefits the MCB Wellness Center.

Commercial exhibits open at 9:00 a.m.

Curly's Funtastic Kid Zone opens at 11:00 a.m. with goat roping at 11:30 a.m.

At 3:00 p.m. the lil' buckaroo rodeo will take place at the livestock show arena.

The NDRA rodeo starts at 6:00 p.m. and will feature saddle bronc and bareback riding, steer wrestling, calf roping ladies barrel racing and ladies and men's breakaway roping.

During the year long planning stages of preparing to put on this event, board members attend a winter fair convention as members of the Rocky Mountain Association of Fairs to prospect entertainment for McKenzie County. At the convention they listen to singers and musicians, and other entertainment and book their entertainment choices.

Tickets to the demolition derby or the rodeo cost $10 for adults and $5 for children ages 6-13. Children six and under are free.

2012 Acreage Reports Due July 15

The annual requirement of reporting to the FSA office can be referred to as crop reporting, acreage reporting, or crop certification. Acreage reports are required to be filed by any producer requesting payments. This includes DCP, ACRE, NAP, CRP, LDP and SURE. The deadline for submitting a timely filed acreage report is July 15, 2012. Producers are reminded that filing an accurate acreage report for all crops and land uses, including failed acreage and prevented planting acreage, can prevent the loss of benefits for a variety of programs. Shakespeare in the Library!

The grass is green, the sun is shining, and it's almost time for an annual visit from the wonderful folks with Montana Shakespeare in the Park. A lot of folks find Shakespeare a little intimidating, and even if the notion of spending time with the Bard doesn't make you nervous, Old English can be tough to follow. The good news is that the Library is here to help. First, we'll get you ready for Shakespeare in the Park during our annual pre-performance movie night, hosted by local expert Cindy Osland. On July 5th at 6:30pm, we'll show a British film production of Twelfth Night and then Cindy will lead a discussion about the major themes and historical context. By the time we're done, you'll be an expert, and sure to impress your friends and audience-mates at Veteran's Park on July 7th.

But maybe you want to spend a little more time with the literary classics, without having to actually say, just read a really long play in Old English. If you do, you should stop by and check out our Shakespeare display. We've got copies of the Montana Shakespeare in the Parks Family Fun Guide to take to the play, as well as their full tour schedule (they're also doing Hamlet in other communities nearby). And you can pick up a movie or book based on a Shakespearean play. Did you know that 10 Things I Hate About You is actually The Taming of the Shrew? Or that Gnomeo and Juliet does a pretty good job of remaking the original romance classic? Plus, you can also check out biographies, and copies of most of his plays complete with footnotes, context, and - where necessary - translations.

Summer is a great time to get into Shakespeare @ Your Library. For more information about what's new and what's going on visit us online at <http://www.richland.org/spl>, like us on Facebook at: <http://www.facebook.com/sidneyrichlandlibrary>, or call us at 433-1917. The Sidney-Richland County Library is open 6 days a week, and starting June 1st we are on our Summer Hours from 9-5 Mon., Tues., Fri., Sat., and 11 to 7 Weds., and Thurs.

Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over

By Richland & McCone County DUI Task Force
“Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over”....Zero Tolerance.

Most Americans don't realize July 4th is one of the deadliest holidays of the year due to alcohol-impaired driving crashes.

Impaired-driving crashes killed 10,228 people in 2010, accounting for 31 percent of all traffic-related deaths in the United States. That's an average of one alcohol-impaired driving fatality every 51 minutes.

The Fourth of July holiday period (6:00pm July 2- 5:59am July 6) is deadly. In 2010 during the holiday, 392 people were killed in motor vehicle traffic crashes. Of those fatalities - 39 percent were in crashes that involved at least one driver or motorcycle operator with a blood alcohol concentration (BAC) of .08 higher.

Nighttime is particularly dangerous. Across the country, impaired driving fatalities spike during the nighttime hours. During the 2010 July 4th holiday period (6:00pm July 2 - 5:59am July 6), more than 80 percent of alcohol-impaired driving fatalities took place at nighttime (6 p.m. to 5:59 a.m.)

The proportion of alcohol impairment among drivers involved in fatal crashes in 2010 was almost five times higher at night (6 p.m. to 5:59 a.m.) than during the day (6a.m. to 5:59 p.m.) for the July 4th holiday period (6:00pm July 2 - 5:59am July 6).

Young (18 to 34 year old) people still don't get the message that drinking and driving kills. During the 2010 Fourth of July holiday period (6:00pm July 2 - 5:59am July 6), 50 percent of young drivers killed in motor vehicle traffic crashes were alcohol impaired (BAC of .08 or higher).

Don't Start the Celebration With out Planning Ahead
Remember to “Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over”

Death is not the only consequence from impaired driving. Often, people have a hard time recuperating financially from the cost of an arrest or the crash itself.

Violators often face jail time, the loss of their driver licenses, higher insurance rates, and dozens of other unanticipated expenses from attorney fees, fines and court costs, car towing and repairs, lost time at work, etc.

Here are a few simple tips to avoid a drunk-driving disaster:

Plan a safe way home before the fun begins;

Before drinking, designate a sober driver;

If you're impaired, use Sidney Shuttle, call a sober friend or family member, or use Richland County Transportation Service so you are sure to get home safely;

If you happen to see a drunk driver on the road, don't hesitate to contact local law enforcement. It's a good idea to have their phone number programmed in your cell phone

And remember, “Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over.” If you know someone who is about to

A Brief History of our company

Pacific's road to becoming a steel and recycling giant began as a one-man operation in Spokane, Wash. Joe Thiebes emigrated from Germany in the 1880s and followed his family's business tradition of trading hides and furs. Soon, Thiebes sent his son, also named Joe, to the wilds of Montana. In the early 1920s, the younger Thiebes officially founded Pacific Hide & Fur Depot in Great Falls.

During World War I, the company expanded beyond furs and hides into collecting ferrous and nonferrous scrap. This scrap metals venture eventually led the firm to branch out in the 1950s into sales of new steel products. The Thiebes family business continued into the third generation, with another son again named Joe, joining forces with his father as the company steadily opened additional locations under the Pacific Hide & Fur name.

The Thiebes family owned the company and the senior Joe Thiebes continued to serve as chairman of the board until his death in 1988, though he wasn't involved in Pacific's day-to-day management. The end of daily family involvement in the business came with the death of the younger Joe Thiebes in 1982. However, Pacific is dedicated to carrying on the Thiebes family tradition of "shooting straight".

Today, Pacific is an employee-owned corporation with 43 branch offices in Washington, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Wyoming, South Dakota, North Dakota, Colorado, Montana & Alberta, Canada.

Have You Had A Free U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary Vessel Safety Check?

Montana may be a land-locked state, but the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary is present here, patrolling the state's largest bodies of water, rescuing disabled boats and saving lives. Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks and the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary work together to promote safe boating in the state.

"Montana's auxiliary Coast Guard members are part of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary District 13 serving Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana," said Dave Hansen, Commander of Division 10 in Montana.

The Coast Guard Auxiliary was set up in 1939 as a group of volunteer lifesavers to support the active duty Coast Guard.

"We patrol in boats on inland reservoirs and lakes, provide vessel examinations to private vessel owners and carry out public education activities," Hansen said.

"A vessel exam is free for the asking," Hansen said. "We especially encourage boaters to have an inspection this time of year to prepare for a safe boating season. We systematically go over the boat and all necessary equipment to correct potential problems before they become a safety issue on the water."

To prepare for a boat inspection and ensure you pass and receive a U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary decal, go to the FWP website at fwp.mt.gov, click Recreation, Stay Safe Outdoors then Boating Safety for the U.S. Coast Guard Vessel Safety Checklist.

To schedule a boat inspection by the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, contact Dave Hansen at 406-459-2957, or by email to: rialtohanen@gmail.com. Or Gary Herseim, Staff Officer for Vessel Exams in Montana, at: 406-437-1566.

Fireworks Safety Tips:
Never allow young children to play with or ignite fireworks.

Avoid buying fireworks that are packaged in brown paper because this is often a sign that the fireworks were made for professional displays and that they could pose a danger to consumers.

Always have an adult supervise fireworks activities. Parents don't realize that young children suffer injuries from sparklers. Sparklers burn at temperatures of about 2,000 degrees - hot enough to melt some metals.

Never place any part of your body directly over a fireworks device when lighting the fuse. Back up to a safe distance immediately after lighting fireworks.

Never try to re-light or pick up fireworks that have not ignited fully.

Never point or throw fireworks at another person.
Keep a bucket of water or a garden hose handy in case of fire or other mishap.

Light fireworks one at a time, then move back quickly.
Never carry fireworks in a pocket or shoot them off in metal or glass containers.

After fireworks complete their burning, douse the spent device with plenty of water from a bucket or hose before discarding it to prevent a trash fire.

Make sure fireworks are legal in your area before buying or using them.

Severe burns, amputations, blindness, and in some cases death are often the result of 4th of July Celebrations.

Have a safe and fun Fourth of July. For more information on safety please contact Mary Friesz, Injury Prevention Specialist at the Richland County Health Department, 433-2207

McKenzie County Implements Building Department

Oil production in McKenzie County has certainly been a mixed blessing of job creation and tax revenues, balanced by strained infrastructure and quality of life challenges. One of those challenges has involved the accelerated construction of homes, businesses, and other buildings. The county is required to adhere to state building codes which are essential to protecting the long-term safety and welfare of the people of McKenzie County. It is also an important part of insuring that buildings maintain their value and usefulness long into the future. How and what we build in our community today, matters to our residents tomorrow.

Earlier this year, the county commission unanimously adopted the North Dakota State Building Code as the standard for construction within the county. The next step in the process was the establishment of a building department and permitting process. Effective July 9th a permit will be required for all new construction projects within the jurisdiction of McKenzie County. Agricultural buildings, of course, will be exempt from the permitting process in accordance with state and county code. Also, all commercial and residential projects currently under construction prior to that date must be registered with the McKenzie County Building Department by October 1st. There is no charge for registration of existing projects. However, builders may request a Certificate of Occupancy for their ongoing project at their option.

When do I need a permit? There are multiple types of building permits to meet different needs including:

- Residential Construction: Standard building permit required.
- Commercial Construction: Standard building permit required.
- Modular Construction: Standard building permit required.
