Watford City's 21st Annual Heritage Day To Take Place Sept. 21

By Anna Dragseth

The 21st Annual Heritage Day will take place at the McKenzie County Heritage Park on Saturday, September 21. The McKenzie County Heritage Park is located west of Watford City at 950 2nd Avenue SW. This free event will start at 11 a.m. and wrap up around 5 p.m.

Throughout the day, attendees will have the opportunity to visit the historic buildings and antique tractors in the Heritage Park that have been donated from all around McKenzie County. Attendees can also participate in a Long X Arts activity (creating clothespin dolls), watch blacksmith shop demonstrations, participate in old-time school activities, and take an old-time photo. There will be several vendors, live music and entertainment, and a free hamburger meal provided by the Watford City Lions Club at noon.

Attendees can watch the Heritage Park's sawmill and shingle mill in action and watch threshing and lense-making demonstrations. There will also be a pie-eating competition for all ages to compete in. There will be a scarecrow building contest, which is new this year, each contestant is responsible for their own props, and they will provide the straw!

Come to Heritage Day to explore the way people lived in McKenzie County many years ago and to enjoy all the activities the event has to offer. It is free for all community members to enjoy!

Feeding bundles of grain into the thresher during last year's threshing demonstration are (L-R) Lonnie Feilmeier and Titus Stenberg.

2nd Annual Welcome to Watford Celebration Scheduled for Friday

By Anna Dragseth

On Friday, September 20, at the Watford City Rough Rider Center, the 2nd Annual Welcome to Watford Celebration will take place. This free event will start at 4:30 p.m. and conclude at 6:45 p.m.

Every year, new community members continue to pour into McKenzie County. So often, people who are new to the area have moved away from their family and friends and know nothing about Watford City, which makes it difficult to get involved in and become familiar with Watford City's community. So to help make these adjustments easier, community members came up with an event that offers newcomers the opportunity to learn more about Watford City's community and ideas on how to get involved.

The event will include representatives from area organizations, businesses, and houses of worship. There will also be bouncy houses and face painting for the kids, and so much more!

Additionally there will be a home Watford City High School Wolves football game next door to the Rough Rider Center at 7 p.m. at the Fridley Field. The organizers of the Welcome to Watford Celebration are hoping that by having this event from McKenzie County Emergency Services Manager Karolin Jappe speaks with attendees at last year's event.

4:30-6:45 p.m. they will catch some of the traffic that is planning to attend the game, and are hoping that some may decide to attend the game right at the completion of the Welcome to Watford Celebration.

Whether you are new to the community or have been here for a while; everyone is encouraged to attend this event on Friday, September 20!

Last Sidewalk Sale Of The Season In Sidney, Sept. 21

By Bill Vander Weele, Sidney Chamber Director

The last sidewalk sale of the season will take place on Saturday, September 21, during regular business hours throughout Sidney. "Business owners felt that having a sidewalk sale during the same day as the Rescued and Reclaimed event at the Richland County Event Center would be a great idea," Bill Vander Weele, executive director of the Sidney Area Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, said. "Rescued and Reclaimed brings a ton of people to our community. Those individuals end up going to our restaurants and hopefully also spend time shopping at our stores." The celebration will feature plenty of sales throughout the community.

"The sale will provide a great way for shoppers to support their local businesses," Vander Weele said. "Our local business owners work extremely hard and we should reward them by at least seeing all the items that they offer."

Kids' Farmers Market To Take Place September 28

The First Annual "Let Them Shine" Kids Farmers Market will showcase young entrepreneurs as they take over The Shoppes at Peifer's at the corner of 7th St. and Lincoln Ave., S.W., Sidney from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, September 28. # Long X Arts Foundation Kicks Off The 2019-2020 Concert Series With A Diverse Lineup Of Entertainment, Watford City

The Long X Arts Foundation's Watford City Area Concert Series is excited to announce the lineup for the 2019/2020 Concert Series, the second series for the newly formed organization that is committed to providing high quality entertainment at an affordable rate for members of the community. All concerts take place at 7 p.m. CT in the Watford City High School Theater Auditorium.

Kicking off the Concert Series on Tuesday, October 8 is The World Famous Popovich Comedy Pet Theater. Popovich Comedy Pet Theater is a family-oriented blend of the unique comedy and juggling skills of Gregory Popovich, and the talents of his furry costars. Popovich, who was a longtime member of the Ringling Bros. & Barnum and Bailey Circus, has a second love for animals and decided to put his two interests and talents together. Thus, Popovich Comedy Pet Theater was formed. Today, there are more than 30 pets that make up the menagerie of this unique show. Each one has been rescued from an animal shelter and given a new leash on life! In the summer of 2018 Popovich Comedy Pet Theater had an extended run in Las Vegas to raves and critical acclaim!

The concert series is once again teaming up with the Comedy Café, welcoming comedian, ventriloquist, musician and stand-up comedian Taylor Mason on Friday, November 15. Taylor Mason's quick wit, flawless delivery and polished material make him a hit with audiences of all ages. He has carved out a career in comedy and entertainment that has taken him around the world and into living rooms across the United States for the past 25 years. He's appeared on a myriad of television programs, YouTube videos, and other online viral videos, he has won awards, he's played Carnegie Hall, he's written a book for Penguin Publishing, and once he did a show for children at his local public library! Opening for Taylor will be America's everyday comedian, C. Willi Myles. With his stories about growing up in the south and acclimating to the cold of Minnesota Willi gives a unique spin to life's everyday challenges by applying humor! Comedy Café event serves as a fundraiser for Bakken Oil Rush Ministry, which provides one of the area's only thrift stores to help people who are struggling to provide basic needs for their families.

On Wednesday, February 19 the concert series will take you "Around the World in 80 Minutes" with the incredible vocal styling of Terry Barber. With an extraordinarily broad vocal range and natural fluency in many musical styles, countertenor Terry Barber has been featured on some of the world's most storied stages, and has worked with many of the music industry's leading figures including Chanticleer, Madonna, Jewel and Steve Smith to name a few. His program features unique arrangements by Emmy and Grammy-winning composers of some of the world's favorite melodies both classical and popular. Danny Boy, Besame Mucho, La Vie En Rose, Bridge Over Troubled Water and a medley of Andrew Lloyd Webber hits are all likely to be heard.

The concert series will close out with a high energy and collaborative performance from the R&B/Soul/Pop a cappella group, Ball in the House on Thursday, April 2. Ball in the House has been entertaining audiences of all ages for over 18 years. Taking a cappella to the next stage, the groups makes "music that'll move ya" with classics like My Girl, Stayin Alive, YMCA, Blank Space, Signed Sealed Delivered, That's The Way I Like It and many more.

"We had such huge support and energy around our first concert series, and we're excited about the lineup we've hand picked for our community, featuring acts that appeal to all ages and tastes," said Jessie Scofield, president of the concert series

Popovich Comedy Pet Theater will perform Oct. 8.

Those Annoying Senior Moments

By Lois Stephens

Did you know that the phrase ‘senior moments’, which means a temporary lapse of memory, first made an appearance in 1996? The staff of Webster’s New World College Dictionary made it the word of the year in 2000. The term seems to poke gentle fun at us older people, but it does give us an excuse when those annoying lapses of memory do occur, which seems to happen more frequently than one would like.

Before we get to the point when we start to worry about those memory glitches, we tend to find the situation humorous. A few decades ago when I was younger and a lot more energetic, I worked for a farmer who developed the habit of calling friends and neighbors ‘Chief’. People would stop in at the farm, stay and chat for awhile, and my boss would talk cheerfully and almost without fail interject the words ‘ok, Chief or “you’ve got that right, Chief’ or some such other phrase that inserted the word ‘chief’ into the conversation. I thought it was funny, and because this man had a flamboyant personality and liked to take center stage, I figured it was his way of standing out in the crowd.

One day he dispelled that myth and admitted to me that many times he had trouble pulling up the right name at the right time. Since he couldn’t remember someone’s name at the moment, even though he might know the person quite well, he decided to start calling everyone Chief to cover his memory lapses.

Again, at the time I thought it was hilarious, but with the passage of time, I no longer find this inability to dredge up a name at the drop of a hat humorous in the least. This same appalling lack of name memory (along with other lapses of memory that have nothing to do with names) has struck me as well. When I struggle to recall a name, all sorts of trivia about that person comes to mind, but the name refuses to surface. A few months ago I was trying to remember the name of a person I know well but whom I have not seen for several months. I could remember all sorts of facts about this lady, but her name totally escaped me. I asked an acquaintance “what is the lady’s name who used to work at the Mercantile, married Ernie the electrician, lives just outside of town, has short red curly hair and owns the black and white dog named Cassie?” I knew all the trivia, but I could not retrieve the lady’s name out of my memory banks to save my life.

As soon as I finished the litany of facts I did remember about this woman, her name popped into my mind. Trust me, I have NOT forgotten that name again, but it illustrates my point about the nebulous nature of recalling a name on the spur of the moment, even of someone I know rather well.

The good news about this is that Reader’s Digest informs me that forgetting names does not mean I’ve gone senile, but is a natural consequence in people who have a few years under their belts. Older people really do have more difficulty recalling names, especially names of people they do not see on a regular basis, and as older people we notice this appalling forgetfulness and wonder if we will be the next victim of dementia. Generally, it means no such thing, it just means we have a little age on us. I suppose that ought to make me feel better, but it doesn’t erase the humiliation of looking at someone I KNOW that I know but for the life of me I cannot come up with the name to fit the face.

Other bits of trivia escape me as well. I know a particular word but I cannot pull it up when I need it. For instance, I know very well the word used to describe a multiple approach to controlling noxious weeds, that word they use that I can’t remember that describes using a combination of spraying, plant-specific insects, weeding or hoeing, and grazing livestock, all used together to control an unwanted weed.

Unfortunately, when this embarrassing situation occurs, the name I needed or the descriptive word I wanted usually surfaces later when my thoughts have moved on to something else, or I recall the name or the bit of trivia at 2:30 in the morning during one of my bouts of insomnia.

I like to tell myself that I have so much information stored in the filing cabinets of my brain that it just takes awhile for my brain to scroll through the wealth of information, find the right cubicle where I stored that little nugget of fact that I am searching for, before it can dredge up the information I seek.

When name recall fails me, I think I need to take a cue from my former employer and find a suitable word that adequately and politely negates the need to come up with a name. So, if I am chatting with you and I call you ‘Amigo’, or ‘Captain’, or ‘Friend’ or some other moniker, please just nod and smile and go along with the joke. Eventually I will remember your real name, if that is any consolation.

Wild West Fall Fest Set For October 5, Culbertson

While you might not run into any outlaws, train robbers or cattle rustlers at this year's 5th annual Wild West Fall Fest fundraiser, you can bet you'll be in the company of some of the community's most charitable and giving community folks.

This year's annual event is being hosted by the Roosevelt Memorial Healthcare Foundation and is taking place October 5 at the Culbertson Saddle Club, in Culbertson. The doors open at 6 p.m.

Attendees will have a chance at winning as much as $1,000 in cash as well as a number of other prizes including an original painting donated by Duane Larsen, of Froid. A pie-to-go live-auction will also be taking place with Darrell Synan, a RMHF board member who is also serving as the auctioneer. Attendees might also catch Gold Fever if they chose to participate in the Pan for Gold raffle where they will have a chance at winning $500 cash.

This year, all of the funds raised will be used toward the purchase of a new fire panel and a fully integrated patient room call-light system for Roosevelt Medical Center. Currently, both are built on aging technology. Replacement parts are becoming obsolete and newer equipment cannot be integrated into the old systems.

Ashlee and the Advocates will be headlining as the evening entertainment.

The meal will include burgers, fries, onions rings and all the fixings. Domestic beers and wine will be available as well as pop and other refreshments.

Attendees are encouraged to dress in casual western duds.

Tickets are $50 and are available at First Community Bank, the lobby of RMC and through any board member. They will also be available at the door during the event.

Board members include Ian Walker, Darrell Synan, Sharon Schmitz, Steve Baldwin, Kim Knick, Jenell Martin and Pam Arneson.

For more information, contact Jaimee Green, RMHF director, at 406-787-6476.

Agate Replica of Brorson Church at MDHC

From now through November 2, visitors to the MonDak Heritage Center in Sidney can view a true artistic masterpiece, a replica of the Brorson Lutheran Church done in Montana agate.

The little church was created by Clara (Malcolm) and Elmer Hagglund of Everett, WA out of agates they collected when they returned to this area to visit Clara's family. Clara had been confirmed at Brorson and had fond memories of the church.

After cutting and polishing the stones, Elmer created the frame out of plexiglass and Clara did the agate work, fixed with glue, one stone at a time. It took the couple 6 ½ months to complete. The church weighs about 50 pounds and is about 30 inches high, 17 inches wide and 29 inches long.

The inside of the church is it's own delight with miniature pews, worshippers and a minister at the pulpit, all created by the Hagglunds.

After the passing of their parents, Hagglunds' daughters brought the church back to Montana and donated it to Brorson Lutheran Church, which in turn gave it to Pella Lutheran Church. It is on loan to the MonDak courtesy of those two entities.

It is truly a delight, and, since admission to the MonDak heritage Center is free, there's no cost to view this wonderful piece of art with such a local appeal. The MonDak is open Tuesday through Friday from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. and Saturdays from 1-4 p.m. at 120 3rd Ave. S.E., Sidney.

Rob Quist 2019 Montana Summer Tour Coming to Sidney Oct. 5

The MonDak Heritage Center presents one of America's premiere singer/songwriters Rob Quist on October 5 at 7 p.m. Quist is slated to bring a memorable evening of award winning original songs to the Sidney audience. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. for the 7 p.m. concert. This free concert is sponsored in part by Beagle Properties. As always, donations are gratefully accepted from those attending.

Rob Quist is lead singer and songwriter of such seminal groups as the Mission Mountain Wood Band, The Montana Band, and Rob Quist & Great Northern. His ode to rural living "Close to the Land", recorded by Michael Martin Murphey, was awarded Song of the Year at the Texas Music Awards, and is featured on the Grammy nominated bluegrass album by Murphey. Rob's composition "America...Pass It On" won a finalist award at the International Wildlife Film Festival for National Geographic and his songs have also been recorded by Loretta Lynn and Jack Gladstone. Rob has appeared numerous times on National TV, has mounted several international tours to Japan, Europe, Greenland, and Canada. He is also a published poet and was inducted into the UM School of Fine Arts Hall of Honors, recognizing him as one of its greats. His love of Montana history and the West has long been the driving force in his musical journey, and his concert is a veritable tour through past and present Montana.

Don't miss this rare opportunity to hear some of Montana's favorite songs, sung by the artist who composed them.

The MonDak Heritage Center is open Tuesday-Friday from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. and Saturday from 1-4 p.m. Admission is FREE. For more information call 406-433-3500 or e-mail mdhc@richland.org.

September 28 Deadline For Submission Of McKenzie County Community Foundation Grants

The McKenzie County Community Foundation invites area 501 (c) (3) nonprofit, government agencies (groups without such designation may enlist a fiscal sponsor) to apply for their grant offerings—totaling over $6900.

Applications are due by September 28. Go to www.NDCF.net/McKenzieCounty and click on Apply for Grant. The Local Advisory Committee Members (Marcia Hellandsaas, Jan Dodge, Daniel Stenberg, Ty Skarda, Desiree Sorensen, Douglas Rolfson, Gaye Dvirnak and Deb Wisness) will discuss the applications and determine grant awards in early October. Also, please stop by our table at Heritage Day on September 21 at the Heritage Park. We would like to hear about your project!

Many sectors of area communities have benefitted from McKenzie County Community Foundation grants in the past. Parks and Recreation, youth services, social services, emergency services and healthcare are just a few of the entities that have received funding.

We receive many more requests for funds than we can fulfill. Gifts for our endowment are welcomed and accepted year round. Our fund and certain donations will qualify for a 40% state income tax credit for those in or out of the state filing in North Dakota. The McKenzie County Community Foundation operates under the umbrella of the North Dakota Community Foundation and is a qualified 501c3.

Please address questions about the tax credit, anonymous giving or other services of the NDCF, to John Heinen, our regional support person, at john@ndcf.net. All inquiries are kept confidential.

McKenzie County Community Foundation Chair Marcia Hellandsaas can help you with local questions. She can be reached at 701-444-3451.

Check Your License Before You Head Out Into The Field

Don't wait until opening day to discover your license and carcass tags are faded and need to be replaced. Hunters and anglers with licenses that are displaying faded text making them difficult to read can have those licenses replaced at no cost at their regional Fish, Wildlife & Parks office.

License providers will soon receive new license paper that will not fade, as is the issue with the current yellow paper. This paper will be shipped to providers during the week of September 9. The new paper rolls will be white, not the traditional bright yellow, for ease of recognition between good paper and bad.

Another option is to go to fwp.mt.gov, login to MyFWP and request a digital version of your license to print at home or download to a smart phone. Digital licenses are good for everything but a carcass tag.

Replacement at an FWP office for faded licenses does not count against the number of replacements an individual is allowed. Local license providers are unable to offer free replacements; the cost is $5 for each license replaced. Faded licenses can also be mailed to FWP for replacement: P.O. Box 200701, Helena, MT 59620-0701 or to your regional FWP office.

Jacobson Benefit Sept. 28

The Sidney Elks Lodge will host a benefit on Saturday, September 28 for former Sidney resident Jason Jacobson who was severely injured in a car accident in 2015. All proceeds will go towards purchasing a wheelchair accessible vehicle to increase Jason's mobility and quality of life.

A free will offering brisket and pulled pork dinner by Moe's Smokin' Grill will start at 5 p.m., followed by silent and live auctions beginning at 7 p.m. For more information, contact Steve Geiser at 406-480-4755 or Kathy Nicholson at 406-480-9032.

Jason explains it this way:
"It has been a little over four years that I have been on this journey of living life from a seat. The hardships that I, and the ones I love, have endured are countless. However, the lessons I've learned are innumerable and the blessings I've experienced are infinite. I was given a second chance at life on May 15, 2015 and because of that I am a changed man that continues and strives to better myself each and every day, not only for myself but for my amazing family and friends. I have found a passion with woodworking and started my own small business, Lazy Legs Woodworking. I have a wonderful fiancé, two silly and smart boys and a fur kid that are my world.

Unfortunately, over the last four years, I have had seven surgeries, six of those surgeries were for pressure ulcers and bone infections. These surgeries started eight months after being out of the hospital after my car accident and the last was on June 15, 2019. Being a paraplegic, I rely on my wheelchair as my new "legs" but that means that I have more skin that is compromised to pressure wounds/sores. Unlike most people who can feel and adjust their body when it is uncomfortable or "asleep" I cannot, so I need to be seated on specialized cushions to help relieve that pressure. Another cause for my wounds is having to transfer in and out of our vehicle with a transfer board which causes friction to my skin and compromises its integrity.

Because of all my surgeries and hospital stays, we will be paying off hospital bills for years to come and simply cannot afford a vehicle for myself but being able to have my own accessible vehicle would not only do amazing things for my physical health but even more so for my mental health. Right now I rely on my fiancé to take me to appointments, shop for our family, take our kids to school, school functions, and so much more, I have had to miss out on too many events and special moments in my kids' and family's lives because I need to use my power chair to comfortably and safely be involved. If I were able to have a vehicle that I could drive while staying in my power chair and not have to transfer, it would drastically improve not only my life but my family's as well. I could be more involved with my boys' school, get them into sports and not only watch but take them to practices and games. I can go to my appointments on my own, go to the grocery store unassisted, take my fiancé on proper dates, take my dog to the dog park, take a drive and enjoy what our beautiful world has to offer and so much more without the worry of damaging my body and missing out on even more.

My family and I are truly grateful and appreciative of everyone's support."

The Elks Lodge will also be holding their annual Wanna Be An Elk 4 Person Scramble golf tournament that day. Registration takes place from 9 to 10:30 a.m. with tee off at 11 a.m. Cost is $50 per golfer and does not include a cart. For more information, contact Ryan Laqua at 406-480-9052 or the Lodge at 406-433-2406.

Parenting Class For Divorcing Parents Offered In Watford City, Sept. 25

Parents Forever, a research based educational parenting program, will be held from 5 to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, September 25 at the NDSU Extension Office/McKenzie County, 205 6th Street NW, in Watford City. Pre-registration is requested prior to attending. Interested individuals are to contact NDSU Extension/McKenzie County by Monday, September 23 at 701-444-3451 or email marcia.hellandsaas@ndsu.edu.

Parents Forever would be appropriate for parents experiencing or considering a family transition of separation/divorce, who are divorced and experiencing challenges or who have never been married and do not live together.

Attendees of Parents Forever will learn valuable skills and tools to help reduce the effects of divorce on their children and themselves.

- Techniques introduced will help participants learn to:
- Eliminate parental conflict in front of the child.
  - Keep the child out of the middle of parent issues.
  - Provide access to both parents.
  - Put the best interest of the child first.
  - Make adjustments in their finances to account for the financial changes that divorce brings.
  - Work with the divorce legal process rather than against it.
  - Form a new "pathway" in life after divorce.
- Cost to attend is $55 per person, which includes a participant workbook.

Bakken Oil Product & Service Show Changing To Meet Evolving Needs, Williston, October 2nd & 3rd

Change is a constant in the oil and gas industry as well as the Williston Basin and Bakken play. "The Bakken Oil Product & Service Show is always looking for ways to change and meet the evolving needs of the industry and the role we play," explains Jeff Zarling with DAWA Solutions Group, producer of the trade show now in its ninth year. The Bakken Oil Product & Service Show will be held October 2 and 3 at the Raymond Family Community Center in Williston, North Dakota.

"When we first launched the show in 2011, there were hundreds of new companies and thousands of new people in the Bakken and they needed a place to quickly and efficiently discover who was in the market and connect to conduct business," said Zarling. "Now, as the market has matured the role of the show is shifting to provide a place where people can still connect but dive deeper into key industry segments and information."

The Bakken Oil Product & Service Show (BOPSS) attracts hundreds of attendees from the area as well as some of the engineers and managers from the corporate offices to explore the latest vendors, tools, technologies and services available in the market. The groups of attendees include trucking, maintenance, well site construction, facilities management, HSE, optimization engineers, petroleum engineers, foremen, superintendents, and numerous service providers who live and work in the region. BOPSS is adding Industry Forums in specific topic areas to serve the needs of these groups.

Industry Forums: BOPSS will be hosting three industry forums in the categories of Fleet Management & Trucking, Petroleum Engineering, and Well Site Facilities. The intention of these forums is to provide valuable information from industry experts, experienced business leaders, technology researchers, and innovative product and service providers to help improve business activities and operations.

LoadPass Permit System Forum: The Fleet Management and Trucking Forum, sponsored by Black Powder Solutions, will feature the LoadPass Permit System, the over-weight and over-sized permit system for county and township roads throughout the Williston Basin. The first part of the session will be a LoadPass Permits Tips, Tricks and Q&A where the permit administrators will provide training on better ways to use the system including the new GIS Map Routing features that are being released in 2019.

The second part of the session will be the LoadPass System Roundtable with the system administrator, policy advisor and developers. The panel will discuss upcoming feature enhancements, operational policies, and take input on feature requests.

Petroleum Engineering Forum: The Petroleum Engineering Forum will feature six to seven senior project presentations from the UND Petroleum Engineering department. The presentations summarize research projects that have been defined together with industry to better understand the Bakken reservoir and improve oil and gas recovery in the Williston Basin. Specific research topics will be published on the BOPSS website soon.

Well Site Facilities Forum:

The third and final section is the Well Site Facilities Forum. Well site operations have an ever-changing environment with equipment advancing, construction strategies, automation and lot applications. This forum, sponsored by Troutman Welding & Fabrication, will focus on emerging solutions and strategies relevant to the Williston Basin.

"We are working with industry and service providers to finalize the content for the Well Site Facilities Forum and expect to have that information published on the website soon," stated Zarling. "We're excited to be partnering with the UND Petroleum Engineering Department and provide a forum to present their research results to the industry. BOPSS 2019 should be a great venue for industry and its product and service providers."

More information about the event is available at www.BakkenOilShow.com.

MT Attorney General Candidate Kimberly Dudik Visits Sidney

By Nicole Lucina
During her campaign of running for Montana Attorney General, Kimberly Dudik paid a visit to Sidney where she met with the public for a meet and greet at Sunny's Family Restaurant.

Dudik has spent time in the legislature, as assistant Attorney General and as a nurse.

"My career has always been about helping people," Dudik said.

One of the first things Dudik addressed was the issue with meth in the state, as well as the heroin and opioid problem. Dudik stated that 60-80 percent of all crimes are drug related. One thing Dudik said she feels passionately about is keeping children safe.

Dudik said that too often children are removed from their home because of drug abuse. If drug treatment was more readily available to those who needed it, children wouldn't be pulled from their homes and families.

Along with that comes the workforce struggle. There are too many people without jobs because they can't pass a drug test or they're unreliable because of their addictions.

Dudik discussed the prescription regulation program that is currently voluntary. She said that often times, those with prescription drug problems visit more than one doctor so they can get more prescription drugs. If more doctors used the regulation program, it would decrease the number of people who have access to narcotics and opioids through multiple doctors.

"Making Montana communities safer, protecting children from abuse, and ending the cycle of criminal justice involvement are why I am running for Attorney General," Dudik's campaign says.

According to the candidate's material she passed out at the meet and greet, she is a champion of reforms in public safety. Her leadership, working with bipartisan groups throughout the state, has led to substantive changes that guard communities from sex offenders, protect vulnerable populations, especially children, enhance substance abuse and mental health treatment and improve criminal justice.

One of the things that Dudik worked on during her time in legislature was a bill that protected pregnant women from having charges brought against them if they were using drugs during pregnancy.

"It's proven that women who are pregnant can beat their addiction by 80 percent if they receive the help they need," Dudik said.

She also discussed that she is working on something to make it to where the way rape kits are used and the availability of them would change.

When asked how she differs from her opponents, Dudik said that she has a wealth of experience that her opponents don't have. She also said she is a domestic violence advocate.

"Nobody on the democratic side has that," Dudik said about her experience.

Dudik went on to talk about public land and how she is a strong advocate of it.

"I would never enforce unconstitutional law," Dudik said in regard to public land.

When a participant of the meet and greet brought up the issue of child safety, Dudik explained a term called grooming. When a person spends their time grooming a child for an inappropriate relationship. Dudik said she passed a law making grooming a crime. The law passed in the 2017 legislature, HB 247. It passed with 100% support. <https://leg.mt.gov/bills/2017/billhtml/HB0247.htm>

"Instead of removing a child from their home, we need to work closely to make the home safe," Dudik said.

She went on to add that one thing everyone can agree on is child safety.

"We need to advocate for everyone," Dudik said.

Casey Schreiner Visited Sidney, September 10

By Nicole Lucina

visited Sidney during his campaign for governor, meeting with the public at the Rod Iron.

Schreiner used to be a high school biology teacher. During his time teaching, he took a group of students to Helena on a class trip. During the trip one of his students suggested that he run for legislature, a choice that he took into consideration and said "changed his life."

Schreiner visits with Sidney voters on Sept. 10.

"Running for governor is something that everyday Montanans should be able to do," Schreiner said.

Among the issues he finds most important to focus on, Schreiner talked about education and health care. With a father who got sick due to the high cost of insulin, Schreiner is invested in fixing the health care system.

"We need to have better resources throughout the state," Schreiner said.

He went on to talk about mental health and how it needs to be addressed and better handled in the state.

"Health care is a big priority, and education is important too," Schreiner said.

With two sons who are on the Autism spectrum, his priorities go hand in hand. He talked about how privileged people are who don't live in rural Montana and the resources that are available. If he didn't live in a good area, it would be difficult to find a preschool where his son would get the proper education.

There was a private school that he wouldn't be allowed to attend because of his Autism. Schreiner feels passionate about all Montanans having access to equal education.

Education is something that he feels all Montanans should be given access to and one of those things is equal opportunity to education and health care. With his son being on the Autism spectrum, it was difficult for him to find a special education service that would be willing to accept a child who was Autistic.

On the topic of education, Schreiner said he feels it's important to invest in those who need it the most.

"We need to re-skill those who need it," Schreiner said.

He went on to talk about the issue of mental health in the state. In 2015 he supported the Native American and Rural Youth Suicide Prevention Pilot Project. While the bill died in legislature, Schreiner said he feels it's something that needs to be addressed.

When asked where he stands on legalizing marijuana, Schreiner said it's a topic he's torn on.

"The downside for youth could be dramatic," Schreiner said.

Schreiner went on to talk about the drug epidemic in the state. He told a story of someone he met who needed drug treatment but didn't have access to it. They were told by a law enforcement agent to steal something, so they would be incarcerated and would then be able to get the treatment needed.

"We have a broken system," Schreiner said.

One of the participants at the meet and greet asked Schreiner how he feels he differs from his opponents.

"My values are different, and my perspective. Having a teacher in the governor's office is really important. We know what everyday Montanan's deal with," Schreiner said.
