Aaron Tippin – Live Saturday, Sept. 7th at the Richland County Fairgrounds

By Tie Shank

CAF Airpower Museum and the Wings of Freedom III are pleased to present Aaron Tippin and special opening act The Copper Mountain Band on Saturday, September

7th at the Richland County Fairgrounds! Gates open at 6:00pm and the concert begins at 7:00pm! Tickets are $25 and can be purchased at the Sidney Chamber of Commerce or any Sidney financial institution.

Aaron Tippin

Aaron Tippin: Growing up on a 110 acre farm in South Carolina, raising Black Angus, hogs, corn and soy beans, Tippin grew up with a work ethic not often seen today. He was an active 4-H member and raised two champion show hogs. He's always had a love for music. In the late 1970s he began performing in local honky tonks. His big break came in 1985 when he competed on the TNN's "You Can Be A Star" TV talent contest, landed a songwriter's contract and moved to Music City.

In the beginning, times were tough: Tippin worked the midnight shift in a factory, wrote songs for music row during the day and lifted weights in the late afternoons. He began competing and winning body building competitions and in 1990 he performed at his first Nashville night club. These performances landed him a recording contract with RCA records in which he stayed until he signed with Lyric Street Records in 1998. In 2004 Tippin released his own record label, NIPPIT Records (Tippin spelled backwards).

Many people know Tippin for his baritone voice and his performances of "There Ain't Nothin' Wrong With The Radio", "You've Got To Stand For Something", "Kiss This", and "Working Man's P.H.D."

He has released nine studio albums and two compilations, one of which is "In Overdrive"

Tippin stated, "This album is a tribute to truckers."

Tippin currently holds a CDL and has a great deal of respect for all of the men and women running hard every day. "America's truckers are out there, busier than ever and keeping America rolling. I love truckin' music and they do too. Their job is much harder than most people realize," stated Tippin.

"In Overdrive" consists of some of the popular songs most truckers know and love, such as: "East Bound and Down", "Six Days on the Road", "Prisoner of the Highway", "Roll On" and many others.

Tippin's talents are not just limited to music and body building; he's also a farmer, a winemaker, a pilot, a welder and a certified airframe and power plant mechanic. He currently resides on a 500 acre farm in Tennessee with his wife and two sons, where he grows food plots and loves to hunt whitetail deer and turkey.

Submitted by Beth Redlin

Last chance this year to clear out all those outdated and obsolete electronic items cluttering your closets. This weekend, the Richland County "Erase your E-waste" program is hosting its regular fall weekend collection event on Friday and Saturday, Sept 6 and 7th and once again it's FREE for all area participants!

This event will be held at the Richland County Shop, 2140 W. Holly, across from the fairgrounds in Sidney from 3 pm to 7 pm on Friday and 9 am to 3 pm on Saturday. (Please note, the county shop is available for drop offs during event times ONLY, when e-cycler employees and local volunteers will also be available to help with loading and unloading.)

As a convenience, a list of acceptable items and a collection form that can be filled out ahead of time are also available online for download at the Sidney ARS website at <http://www.ars.usda.gov/npa/npa/ewaste>. In general, acceptable items include: computers and their components, printers, cell phones, TVs, fax machines, copiers, VCRs, stereos, gaming units and more. Local businesses, agencies and organizations with large amounts to e-cycle are asked to make an appointment to drop off their items by calling Jackie Couture at 406-433-9422. Please leave a message.

This year the "E-rase your E-waste" committee has added a new e-cycler, Yellowstone E-waste Solutions, out of Billings, MT. Like the previous e-cycler, Yellowstone is providing their services for FREE.

This annual collection effort is coordinated by the Richland County Local Emergency Planning Committee, Richland Opportunities, Inc., the Sidney Agricultural Research Lab, and volunteers with the Retired Seniors Volunteer Program. Additional support is provided by the city of Sidney and Richland County, along with several local businesses, including Sidney Health Center and Sidney Sugars, Couture said. The Montana Department of Environmental Quality has also committed funds for advertising the 2013 event.

For more information on this event, contact Jackie Couture at 406-433-9422 or Cindy Eleson at 406-488-3341.

2nd Annual Parade of Homes Set for September 29

By Dianne Swanson

Brenda Larson and the staff of Creative Solutions are busy putting the final touches on this year's Parade of Homes which will take place on Sunday, September 29. The project is a fundraiser for the Boys and Girls Club of Richland County to help them fund a much needed permanent home. Last year the event raised $10,000 and Larsen is hoping to increase that amount. Dura Supreme has generously agreed to sponsor the event again this year, allowing ALL ticket sales to go directly to the club.

Six local homeowners have graciously agreed to open their homes to the public. They are Lee & Kelly Alvstad, 118 15th Ave. SW, Sidney; Conrad & Linda Conradsen, 10761 CR 344, Savage; Justin and Tammy Jones, 303 2nd Ave. SW, Sidney; Dennis and Brenda Marker, 1576 11th Ave. SW, Sidney; Brady and Nicki Reuter, 11151 CR 345, Savage; Shawn and Tanya Rost, 136 Washington St., Crane. The homes highlight the work of talented local contractors, and mostly locally purchased materials.

Each home features remodeling based on the owner's style. The Jones house is a historical home which has been completely remodeled, Markers' remodel was inspired by their trip to Europe, Conradsen's home is a walking art gallery, and Allstad's house has been completely flip flopped. Alvstads and Markers have garages the men will drool over, while some of the homes feature unique cool bathrooms. Reuters' home has fabulous custom texturing and a gorgeous wood staircase. Rosts took the old Tanglen house and completely redid the inside, while keeping some unique features such as the windows and exposed brick.

Participants may start at any home on the tour. Most of the homes have stairs and are not handicap accessible. Shoes and bare feet are not allowed. Booties will be available at each location.

The main contractors from each home hope to be on site, as well as representatives from Dura Supreme, Life Span Closets and more. Any contractor wishing to highlight their business with an ad in the Parade of Homes Booklet is asked to contact Larson as soon as possible at 488-1461.

Tickets are on sale now for just $15 at Creative Solutions, TriFecta Home Center, The Sidney Herald and the Boys and Girls Club of Richland County. Tickets will be available the day of the show at Creative Solutions for $20. At the last home on the tour, participants are asked to drop off their stamped tickets which will go into a drawing for the grand prize. Last year's winner was Joyce Wicorek of Fairview who won a knife set valued at over $500.

Plan now to spend a fun day touring these unique homes, and help the children of Richland County at the same time!

MT Depart. of Justice Announces Grants to Fund Wishes of Montana’s Seriously Ill Children

Sale of Special Motorcycle License Plate Makes Funds Available

Submitted by Anastasia Burton

Today, the Montana Department of Justice announced the availability of $67,730 in Chrome for Kids Wish Fund grants. These funds are made available through a special Chrome for Kids motorcycle license plate that is used to fund efforts by Montana-based nonprofit corporations which grant wishes to chronically or critically ill Montana children.

“Thanks to the generosity of Montana’s motorcycle owners, the wish of a chronically or critically ill child can now come true,” said Attorney General Tim Fox. “Families who are dealing with a seriously ill child often struggle simultaneously with the financial aspect of their loved one’s diagnosis, leaving little for a dream vacation or activity. The Chrome for Kids Wish Fund grants offer a way for Montana’s non-profits to help improve the lives of ill children in ways that are meaningful to them and their families.”

Grant applications will be accepted by the Motor Vehicle Division at the Montana Department of Justice through October 30, 2013. Grants will be awarded by November 30, 2013. Funds awarded through these grants must be used within two years of the award.

Grant criteria are:
(1) Only Montana-based nonprofit public or private corporations which have received IRS 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt designation and whose purpose includes assistance to chronically or critically ill Montana children may apply for a Chrome for Kids Wish Fund grant.

(2) Funds must be used to provide a chronically or critically ill Montana child a special wish. No more than 10% of awarded grant funds can be used for program administration by the applicant.

(3) Children’s wishes shall be determined by the parents or legal guardians of minor children in consultation with the child and an attending healthcare provider and may be of the following type: (a) a visit to a special place such as a children’s theme park or a city or metropolitan area to experience unique or different food, arts, education, entertainment, and culture; (b) a trip to participate in or observe a special activity such as a rodeo, baseball game, surfing, or other physical/sports activity; (c) financial assistance to provide improvement in the quality of life for the critically or chronically ill child as determined by the attending physician and parents/legal guardian; or (d) a special activity such as a birthday party or celebration of the child’s life as determined by parents/legal guardian.

Grant applicants must submit the following materials with each grant application: The legal title of the nonprofit organization and the address of its principal office; a list of the organization’s board members and their occupations; a copy of the organization’s IRS tax-exempt designation; the name of the proposed grant, the amount of funding requested, the general purpose of the proposed grant, a specific description of how any awarded grant funds would be used; and any evidence of public support for the proposed grant. Successful grant applicants will be required to provide the Montana Department of Justice Motor Vehicle Division with a report, once grant funds are exhausted, that details specifically how the grant funds were used.

Applications can be submitted to the attention of the Montana Department of Justice Motor Vehicle Division Administrator at PO Box 201430, Helena, Montana 59620-1430; or emailed to mvdtitleinfo@mt.gov. For more information, call (406) 444-3638.

NDRA Rodeo Finals

September 13-14

The two-day NDRA Rodeo Finals event will feature the talents of North Dakota's top 12 competitors in nine events, as they try to become the 2013 NDRA State Champion.

The event is taking place Sept. 13 - 14 with rodeo action starting at 7:00 p.m. Go-around prizes will be awarded to each night's top contestants. The beer garden opens Friday at 6:00 p.m.

Other events are scheduled for Saturday including the Watford City High School Club Rodeo at 9:00 a.m. along with a team roping event to follow at 10:00 a.m.

The Saturday NDRA Rodeo again starts at 7:00 p.m. with champions crowned during the evening performance.

Even if you're an avid rodeo-goer, this particular venue offers something a little different from your average outdoor arena. "Watching the rodeo indoors really gets you up close to the action. Many of these competitors are amateur performers who go professional. When you mix that with some of the best rodeo stock there is, watching it all from 50 feet away is really a good time," said Gene Veeder, a NDRA Rodeo Finals Committee member.

This year marks the celebration of 60 years of the North Dakota Rodeo Association with this being the 15th annual event taking place in Watford City.

"This has become one of North Dakota's premier western events, a place where you can meet most of North Dakota's amateur and high school rodeo contestants and fans in one big weekend of activities. Watford city has also added several new motels and an expanded shopping district so it should be an exciting new look for visitors," Veeder said.

Money generated from this event is part of an annual fundraiser that benefits a number of area organizations, including the Eagles Club, McKenzie County 4-H and the Oilers Hockey Club.

Rodeo stock were chosen by judges and performers and selected from a wide variety of stock contractors to help ensure the best competition.

Admission is $12 for adults, $8 for students ages 7-18 and children 6 and under are free.

Back to School: Now's The Time to Update Your Child's Vaccines

Submitted by John Ebelt

Department of Public Health and Human Services officials say that with another school year set to begin, now is the time to make sure children are up to date on their vaccines.

Officials say that getting all of the recommended vaccines is one of the most important things parents can do to protect their children's health.

With back to school rapidly approaching and a continued increase in the number of pertussis, or "whooping cough" cases throughout the state, DPHHS Director Richard Oppen says "parents are encouraged to check with their health care provider or local health department to ensure that their children are up to date on all recommended immunizations."

Schools are highly susceptible to outbreaks of infectious diseases. When children are not vaccinated, they are at increased risk for disease and can spread disease to others in their classroom and further into the community endangering babies who are too young to be fully vaccinated, and people with weakened immune systems due to cancer and other health conditions.

A flu vaccine is recommended every year for all children 6 months and older. Children age 4 to 6 are due for boosters of four vaccines:

diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis
MMR (measles, mumps, rubella)
Polio

Older children – like pre-teens and teens – need:

Tdap (tetanus, diphtheria, pertussis)
MCV (meningococcal conjugate virus)
HPV

DPHHS urges parents to talk with their doctor, nurse, or local health department about the recommended vaccines. Parents can find out more about the recommended immunization schedule at www.immunization.mt.gov.

Montana Protests BLM's Proposed Hydraulic Fracturing Rules

Submitted by Anastasia Burton

Attorney General Tim Fox announced today that Montana has joined four other states protesting the U.S. Bureau of Land Management's (BLM) re-proposed rule to regulate hydraulic fracturing operations on federal and Indian lands.

In a letter to U.S. Department of the Interior Secretary Sally Jewell, the Attorneys General of Alabama, Alaska, Montana, Oklahoma, and West Virginia strongly assert that the BLM cannot justify a need for new federal regulations and requirements, which will duplicate existing state programs.

"The BLM would be hard pressed to explain why it needs to impose new 'one-size-fits-all' regulations on states where hydraulic fracturing operations are in place," said Attorney General Tim Fox. "These states, including Montana, already have well trained staff who regulate fracking operations and issue permits. This is another example of the federal government trying to complicate the way states self-regulate in ways that work best for them, and could impede the development of oil and gas within their borders."

The five Attorneys General also questioned whether the BLM has the authority to regulate land and water use within the states, in light of the Supreme Court's long-standing recognition of state and local regulation powers, citing the Clean Water Act and the Safe Drinking Water Act as examples.

Before the BLM finalizes its rule, the Attorneys

General asked the agency to defer to the states' regulatory programs on federal lands, as well as identify any environmental, health, or safety concerns in relation to fracking operations that have not already been addressed by state regulators.

Sidney Health Center Set To Host Another “Live it up!” Event For Local Women

Submitted by Rita Steinbeisser

Sidney Health Center will host its seventh “Live it up!” event for women on Monday, September 9 with a focus on wellness and empowerment. The program for the evening will be “Eat What You Love, Love What You Eat,” empowering women to resolve mindless and emotional eating to live the vibrant life they crave.

Once again, the evening promises to be fun, educational and entertaining. The festivities will kick-off at the Richland County Fair Event Center with a vendor fair at 4:30 p.m. featuring various independent distributors offering goods ranging from home décor to jewelry to gourmet food products. A light menu including appetizers, finger foods and refreshments will be served beginning at 6:00 p.m. followed by an entertaining, interactive presentation by motivational guest speaker, Dr. Michelle May at 7:00 p.m.

Michelle May, MD is a recovered yoyo dieter and founder of Am I Hungry? Mindful Eating Workshops. As an international speaker, Dr. May’s passion, insight, and humor stem from her personal struggles with food. She is the award-winning author of Eat What You Love, Love What You Eat: How to Break Your Eat-Repent-Repeat Cycle. Dr. May has appeared on Dr. Oz, Discovery Health Channel and Oprah Radio, and has been quoted in Fitness, Health, Parents, Prevention, Self, Women’s Day and other popular magazines.

Decades of ineffective dieting have left us feeling guilty and disappointed. This interactive, entertaining program turns that old fashioned approach on its head! Dr. May delves much deeper than the obvious advice to “eat less, exercise more” and explores the six crucial decision points in the mindful eating cycle. Attendees will learn real-life strategies for eating fearlessly to nourish their body and fuel the fulfilling life many crave.

To take part in this fun, educational program individuals must be 21 years of age. All “Live it up!” events are designed to empower women to live life to the fullest by encouraging them to care for themselves and the ones they love. Tickets are available at Sidney Health Center’s Caring Corner Gift Shop for $20.00 per ticket prior to the event and $25.00 at the door. Reserved tickets are also available for $150 for six tickets through the Marketing and Communications Department. Call today to reserve your table at (406) 488-2595 or 488-2101.

Harlem Ambassadors Tour Is Coming Our Way

Submitted by Leona Colvin

The internationally-acclaimed Harlem Ambassadors will be visiting north-eastern Montana for a game at Culbertson High School Gymnasium on Thursday, October 24, 2013 at 7:00 PM.

The Harlem Ambassadors offer a unique brand of Harlem-style basketball, featuring high-flying slam dunks, dazzling ball-handling tricks and hilarious comedy routines. Our local team, the RMC Super Shots, includes teachers, coaches, firefighters, police officers, ranchers, farmers, and other local leaders. Come and see your neighbors from Bainville, Brockton, Culbertson, and Froid take on the Ambassadors!

The Ambassadors feature non-stop laughs and deliver a positive message for kids wherever the Ambassadors play. "At our shows, we want the kids to know that they're part of our team too," Coach Ladè Majic said. "We invite as many kids as we can to come sit on the bench, have a front row seat during the show, and get involved in all of the fun stuff we do."

The Ambassadors set themselves apart from other "Harlem-style" basketball teams by working with local not-for-profit and service organizations and holding Harlem Ambassadors shows as community fundraising events. For this upcoming event the Ambassadors have partnered with Roosevelt Memorial Healthcare Foundation to help raise funds for local healthcare.

The Ambassadors have worked extensively with organizations such as Habitat for Humanity, Boys & Girls Clubs, Big Brothers Big Sisters and American Red Cross as well as Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis clubs in communities throughout the U.S., and perform more than 200 shows a year. Those shows have helped raise millions of dollars – an accomplishment of which Ambassadors President Dale Moss is very proud.

"It feels good to be able to provide quality entertainment and create memories that the fans will take with them," Moss explained. "We're able to give even more when we can help provide funding for a Habitat for Humanity house or new computers for the school library, and that feels great."

Advance tickets can be purchased online at <http://rooseveltmedical.brownpapertickets.com/> or locally at Roosevelt Medical Center,

First Community Bank-Culbertson, or Richland Federal Credit Union-Culbertson. For more information call Leona Colvin at 406.787.6455 or go to www.harlemambassadors.com.

The Mid-Dakota Chapter of Farm Safety 4 Just Kids was recently awarded the Volunteer Chapter of the Year award for 2012. The award included recognition for their exceptional volunteer efforts, a trophy and check in the amount of $400 for chapter expenses.

Every year thousands of volunteer hours are spent teaching children, youth, and farm families about farm safety. The hard working volunteers dedicated to educating youth in the community teach prevention of the hazards that children face every day while growing up in rural areas.

Since the Mid-Dakota chapter of Farm Safety 4

Just Kids began, thousands of kids have attended farm safety camps, school programs, booths, health fairs and ag shows conducted by the chapter volunteers. They have also facilitated Off-Highway Vehicle seminars, held in conjunction with the North Dakota Parks and Recreation Department, and awarded close to 400 helmets to students receiving OHV certification.

"We put our heart and soul into educating the communities we serve in north western North Dakota. Every child and their family benefits from our effort," says Allie Sagness, Mid-Dakota Chapter President.

The national Farm Safety 4 Just Kids organization was established in 1987 by Marilyn Adams who began the group after the loss of her own son in a farm accident. The Mid-Dakota chapter was started in 1988. Their mission is to promote a safe farm environment to prevent health hazards, injuries and fatalities to children. Each year there are thousands of children hurt, even killed, on a farm.

Accidents can be prevented if we raise awareness and educate people on prevention. If you are interested in being a member, a sponsor, or would just like safety information presented to a group or organization, please contact any member or Allie Sagness at (701) 377-2656.

Lynne Jordan Artwork to be on Display at MonDak Heritage Center

This is the fourth in a series highlighting the talented Blue Buffalo artists whose work will be on display at the MonDak Heritage Center in Sidney during the month of October.

Lynne Jordan works in oils, watercolors and pastels to bring her viewers into the world of National Parks where she spent many years of her life. She has also mastered what she calls pyrographic sculpture, her state of the art technique in wood burning and light carving on three-dimensional driftwood. This art form originally began in Russia and moved to the United States in the 1700s. Jordan has advanced this art form into the 21st Century with realism in western and wildlife subject matter.

Jordan explains her subject matter this way. "I was born and reared in western National Parks where, behind the front lines of tourist gatherings, lies a world of wild and secluded life. I spent a great deal of my childhood hiking among the hidden glens where I would sit for hours watching the private life of 'wild' unfold before me.

Whether I am portraying the elusive lynx, or the people that survived the hardships of the West long ago, I look for that brief moment of deep personal awareness. I want to share with the viewer the ability to move in unobserved...to sit beside the young pioneer girl as she reties the laces of her worn-out boots; to smell the breath of a bull elk on a crisp fall morning in the high country; or to share the flight of an eagle on his way home to feed his young."

Jordan studied art at the University of Oregon, New Mexico State University and the Lesnick Art Studio in Las Vegas, NV. Her work is represented in dozens of galleries and she continues to keep up with the customers' demand for her work. She has received numerous awards and has had many one-woman exhibitions. Jordan now resides in Boulder City, Nevada.
