Lewis Family To Be Honored At 72nd Alexander Old Settler's Day

By Stephanie Ler

Bill and Donna Lewis are looking forward to visiting with friends and dancing at the 72nd Alexander Old Settler's Day Celebration. The Lewis' were chosen as the honorees for this year's celebration.

Bill and Donna live on Donna's family homestead in the Squaw Gap area. Bill, originally from the Sioux Pass area, married Donna on November 30, 1957, and they bought the farm from Donna's parents in 1969. The property has been in Donna's family since 1906. Donna's father came from Scotland in 1903 and worked as a hired hand on a sheep farm. In 1906, her father started his own homestead, where Bill, Donna and their son currently raise cattle. Now retired, the couple enjoys visiting others in the neighborhood, dancing and going to parties.

Old Settler's kicks off on Thursday, August 31st, with a bonfire, and picks up again on Friday, September 1st at 1PM with a chili cook-off on Main Street. To enter the cook-off, contact Barb or Jamie at 701-570-2011 or 701-770-2100.

A cornhole tournament will start at 2 on Friday at the Hi-way Lounge. Beginning at 9, catch Bill and Donna dancing to music by the Great Outdoors, a Fargo-based band playing a variety of genres.

Parade registration begins at 8AM Saturday and runs until the parade begins, at 11AM. Between 11 and 5, vendors of all kinds, including direct sellers, food purveyors, and crafters, will be set up in the Park. To set up as a vendor, call 701-828-3082.

12 noon marks the beginning of the annual barbeque

in the park, where friends will have the opportunity to meet and greet with Bill and Donna Lewis. A kids carnival will be set up in the southwest corner of the park, featuring bouncy houses and other activities, from noon to 4PM. Bingo in the park, located under the covered picnic area, will run from 2 to 5, and at 2, the Hi-Way Lounge will be hosting a horseshoe tournament.

Bring your dancing boots again on Saturday, as the band Moment's Notice will play beginning at 9. The band recently played at Sturgis, and offers something to fit everyone's taste.

The Old Settler's button serves as admission to all activities, and can be purchased for $2 at the Hi-Way Lounge, as well as several other locations around Alexander.

J'z Fashions to Expand Into Former Saddle Up Location

Julie Smelser, owner of J'z Fashions and Coffee House, stands in the empty former Saddle Up building. By the end of September, J'z Fashions will have that space filled.

By Dianne Swanson

In the most exciting news for the Sidney retail community in a long time, J'z Fashions has announced its expansion into the former Saddle Up building next door. Customer concerns and requests have fueled the move, with people wanting to shop in Sidney.

In addition to their fantastic fashions and footwear, J'z Fashions will be adding western wear, infant and children's wear, and home décor. Levis for the entire family, Dockers, cowboy hats and plus sizes are just some of the exciting new offerings. "We're keeping the fantastic lines we have and adding more while readjusting to current times. We want to offer lower cost, good quality clothing for our customers," owner Julie Smelser stated. "If people would like to see additional brands, they just need to ask. We'll try our best to get what they want."

Home décor items will include linens, florals, Stonewall Kitchens rubs and spices, and much, much more. The fantastic designs of Billie Jo Morken of Watford City will also be offered. "A Touch of Earth" includes unique jewelry, capes and rustic furniture inlaid with stones, conches, cowhide and more. "She blings up items with her unique style," explained Smelser.

Another exciting new addition will be a rejuvenation station featuring a relaxing spa atmosphere, offering PAR AVION TEA, which is sold in spas only and not only creates incredible teas with powerful antioxidants, but also has face cleanser, body moisturizers and bath soaks.

Try out Bemer, a physical vascular therapy device which promotes micro circulation "For you, for life, for energy", with Danielle Rambur as sales rep. Customers can stop in daily to get their blood flowing and enjoy better overall health. Smelser will also become a retailer of Bemer in the near future.

Also included in the rejuvenation station is the popular Kangan water which helps with multiple health issues. Kangan water hydrates the body, cleanses the body, or the home, is a powerful anti-oxidant, and helps remove acid waste from the body. "People bring in their jugs to fill with Kangan water. We have very happy customers, and we use it for our coffee and teas as well," Smelser explained.

The popular coffee bar featuring City Brew coffees, delightful teas and delicious custom baked goods will move into the new space. "The coffee bar is open as long as our doors are open," employee Stacie Roddy emphasized. Stop by for your favorite beverage and a free sample of yummy baked goods by Kim Loveless.

Expanding the store was not an easy decision. "Bret and I thought about it for a long time," Smelser said. "We've survived the worst and believe we can provide shoppers with what they need. It's good to keep Sidney competitive and keep people happy with shopping in their home town."

Smelser credits her staff with carrying the store through the recent economic downturn. "Stacie Roddy is amazing and offers fantastic customer service. She truly goes out of her way to please," Smelser said. Roddy said she and her husband moved to Sidney because they love it here, and want to stay. She's excited about all the new changes to the store. "We want to have something for everybody in all price ranges. And, if you need a baby gift on Saturday for a shower on Sunday, we'll have it."

Renee Torgerson has been with J'z Fashions since the beginning, doing the accounting and filling in part time as needed. Kay Balduke completes the staff, working part time. "She's very good," Smelser said. "She knows the customers and is very helpful. The entire staff is behind the expansion and we'll be looking for additional help once we get moved."

Roger Beyer, owner of the building, has also been very helpful. "He's so understanding and listens to our concerns and ideas. He's a very big part of this expansion and does everything he can to promote business in Sidney," Smelser stated.

"We're very excited about providing more options in Sidney. People want to keep their home town thriving. When stores close, the impact trickles down and affects everybody. We want to reverse the trend and provide a quality, affordable shopping experience," Smelser said. "We're also happy to recommend other businesses in town. It's all about the customer finding what they want in Sidney, no matter who gets the sale. It benefits all of us."

J'z Fashions and Coffee House is located at 113 E. Main, Sidney. Stop in, call them at 406-433-5050, and follow them on Facebook.

E-rase your E-waste set for Sept 8-9 in Sidney; CRT Recycling in Williston This Weekend

Save the date! E-rase your E-waste organizers in Sidney have announced the dates for their annual fall collection event: Friday and Saturday, Sept. 8-9. MonDak area residents are invited to bring their damaged and outdated electronic equipment to the event for free recycling. Now in its 13th year, E-rase your E-waste has recycled more than 427,000 pounds (213 TONS!) of electronic waste through 2016!

In announcing the fall collection date, organizers also reported that restrictions on recycling of certain items remain in place for the Sidney event, particularly regarding CRT monitors / TVs.

"Unfortunately, our e-cycler is still unable to take any monitors or televisions with cathode ray tubes," event co-chair Jackie Couture noted. "But most other electronic devices are being accepted." Those include computers and their components (printers, scanners, keyboards, flat screen monitors, etc.), cell phones, cameras, VCRs, cable TV boxes, fax machines, copiers, stereos, game boys and specialized electronic equipment used in businesses such as hospitals, law enforcement, manufacturing and even the oil field.

Option for recycling CRTs

There will be more information on the Sidney event coming soon, Couture said, but noted in the meantime that those with CRT monitors to recycle can properly dispose of them at another recycling event set for Williston this coming weekend. "They're able to take the CRTs there," she said, "but there is a charge running from $20 to $40 depending on the size of the monitor or television."

"We're letting everyone know about the ongoing restrictions on CRTs for our Sidney event now so that area residents with CRT monitors or TVs can take advantage of the recycling effort in Williston if they wish," Couture said. "Our goal in developing "E-rase your E-waste" has always been to encourage and facilitate proper recycling of waste electronics to protect our environment and human health."

The Williston event is being hosted by North Dakota Recycling Services at 409 1st Street West in Williston. Event times are Friday, Aug. 25 from 9 a.m.-6 p.m. Central time and Saturday Aug. 26 from 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Thank You

What a wonderful community we live in! Thank you to all that helped out during the Yooper Fire (Charley Creek Fire). To those who donated food and water, delivered supplies, brought fuel, helped with meals, assisted with children, and sent prayers and phone calls - we thank you! A huge thank you to the neighbors, firefighting crews, and Richland County Road Department, who worked around the clock to help ensure the safety of livestock, land, and homes. We will never truly have a complete list of all the great community neighbors who helped us out, but please know we are so grateful and thankful for your help and support. A shout out to the area businesses who donated to the Yooper Fire: Stagecoach, Wild West Diner, Scoops, Hometown Market, Me Too Pizza, Montana Bar, Culbertson Saddle Club, FES, Miller Oil, Hurley Oilfield Services, Ranger Bar, Reynolds, and Walmart. Thank you to Tractor Supply and NCSG Heavy Haul Service for the hay and fencing supplies donated. We are forever grateful!

Sidney Chosen As Hometown Humanities Site

The MonDak Heritage Center announces that Humanities Montana has chosen Sidney as the next site for Hometown Humanities, an initiative that brings a year’s worth of humanities-based programming to a single community. These programs are scheduled over the course of 12 months, so that every few weeks there is a new event. All Hometown Humanities programs will be free and open to the public.
A local steering committee with representatives from the MonDak Heritage Center, Sidney Area Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture, Sidney-Richland County Library, ONEOK, Inc., the Boys & Girls Club of Richland County, area schools, and other local organizations will work with members of the community and Humanities Montana staff to plan approximately 25 educational and cultural programs starting this fall. Events will include public speakers, speakers in the schools, community discussions, and more.
To participate in the planning committee or to sign up for a newsletter to get alerts about upcoming events, email Humanities Montana at info@humanitiesmontana.org or contact the MonDak Heritage Center at mdhc@richland.org or (406) 433-3500. Humanities Montana and the local steering committee welcome input and participation from all residents of Richland County.
The MonDak Heritage Center applied for the prestigious designation, with the Sidney Area Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture serving as co-sponsor. Previous locations include Miles City, Dillon, Lincoln County, Havre, and Livingston. Next year’s application will open in early 2018.
Humanities Montana is an independent, nonprofit affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Since 1972, Humanities Montana has engaged people in conversations about the meaning of human experience through grants and programs on history, literature, diverse cultures, philosophy, and current affairs. Each year, Humanities Montana supports hundreds of Montana organizations conducting public humanities programs.

Dr. Kessler Receives Hospitalist Certification

Dr. Jerome Kessler, of Sidney MT, has recently passed the "Focused Practice in Hospital Medicine" certification exam. This completes a three year process. The program and exam are sponsored by the American Board of Internal Medicine.

Physicians who specialize in this area are referred to as "hospitalists," which is a term that was coined in 1996. The push to have additional training in this area is based on several factors: medical science has become more complex; hospital patients are a lot sicker than they used to be; and many hospital illnesses involve more than one body system. Hospitalists treat and coordinate care for a wide variety of heart, lung, kidney, nervous system, metabolic issues, perioperative medical care, and infection problems.

The Society of Hospital Medicine (SHM) addresses quality of care issues. Recent studies show a 21% drop in hospital complications and a 15% drop in hospital mortality during the same time period that hospital medicine guidelines have been implemented. Hospital Medicine certification requires that the candidate complete over 100 maintenance of certification points in a 3-year time period. An applicant must also provide documentation that he has over 3000 hospital care encounters in a 3-year period, provide hospital letters of support (from the CEO and Chief of Staff), hold a valid state medical license, be a member of a hospital staff, and pass the 10 hour national board exam.

Dr. Kessler is now certified in four areas: internal medicine, hospital medicine, geriatrics, and family medicine. Kessler has now taken and successfully passed 14 different national board certification and re-certification exams, with four of these completed within the past 4 years.

Dr. Kessler's says: "I love the art and science of medicine. Keeping up to date helps me provide the best possible care for patients. Training and certification in these medical areas is especially important when you practice in a smaller community."

Dr. Jerome Kessler

Dr. Kessler rotates hospital coverage at Sidney Health Center with Dr. Karanjai and other providers. He also has an office practice in Suite #110 at 406-488-2550.

Grants Available to Benefit Social Justice in Montana

The Montana Community Foundation (MCF) announces the opening of a grant cycle to benefit projects promoting social justice in Montana. Grants will be made from the Social Justice Montana Fund, established at MCF in 1997 with a challenge grant from the Otto Bremer Foundation that was matched by donations from Montanans across the state.

Applicants must be either a 501(c)(3) nonprofit or an exempt governmental unit. Grants will range in size from $1,000 to $5,000. Only one application is allowed per organization.

Successful grantees will have the following characteristics:

- Promote social justice in Montana.
- Work to understand and address the root causes of the issues, not just the symptoms.
- Sees itself as part of a larger movement for social change, and works towards strengthening that movement.
- Preference will be given to projects that engage Montana's youth in the work of social justice.

Eligible projects must provide a direct benefit to Montana residents, be sustainable, and address important, unmet needs. Ineligible projects include partisan or sectarian activities.

Grant requests are reviewed by the MCF Grants & Scholarships Committee. The grant process is competitive; incomplete applications will not be considered. Grant applications will be accepted Aug. 7 – Sept. 8, 2017.

To apply for a grant, access the online application at mtcf.org/grants. Only online applications will be accepted. For questions, please contact MCF Director of Operations & Grants Jessica Stewart-Kuntz at (406) 441-4950 or jessica@mtcf.org.

The Foundation for Community Care is excited to announce that Gem City Motors has donated a new 2017 Chevy Silverado valued at over $47,000 as the prize for anyone who gets a hole-in-one on the 9th hole during the 24th Annual Golf Scramble. Gem City was happy to sponsor the prize for the fundraising event. The golf scramble will be held Saturday, Aug. 26th at the Sidney Country Club. The shotgun start is at 9 am and golfers are encouraged to play for a good cause.

This tournament is the last of the summer and is filled with fun right from the start. Upon checking in, golfers have the opportunity to choose a gift from the pop-up pro shop as a thank you for their support of local healthcare.

Golfers will also enjoy continental breakfast, bloody mary & mimosa bar, lunch in the club house, snack and beverages on the course and a cocktail house following play.

Located at one of the holes, for the 3rd year, will be an air cannon that golfers can use for a donation, to give their ball some extra distance.

Six grand prize winners will get a Yeti cooler provided by Johnson Hardware. There will be other prizes.

This tournament has raised more than $375,000 to benefit local healthcare over its 23-year history. Golfers are encouraged to come out and enjoy a day of golfing while supporting quality healthcare in their community. Registration is $150.00 per person, with six people to a team. Both complete teams and individuals are invited to register online at www.foundationforcommunitycare.org, call 406-488-2273 or stop in at 221 2nd St. NW in Sidney.

The MonDak Heritage Center announces Orchard Fire for Music at the MonDak

The MonDak Heritage Center welcomes Nashville-based band Orchard Fire for a country music performance for Music at the MonDak on Wednesday, August 23 at 6:00 p.m. at the MonDak Heritage Center, 120 3rd Ave SE, Sidney. A great way to kick off the new school year! When you take a powerful voice with a touch of southern inflection, add great songwriting that paints pictures with vibrant lyrical images and sweeping melodies, and dress that up in a suit of rock 'n roll clothes, what you get is Orchard Fire. At times reminiscent of Tom Petty's Heartbreakers being fronted by Miranda Lambert, Orchard Fire is a country rock band that is equal and heavy helpings of both parts of its genre's namesake. This Music at the MonDak performance is FREE to the public. Free will donation graciously accepted. Donations support programs, exhibits, and collections preservation at the MonDak. For more information on the show call (406) 433-3500 or e-mail mdhc@richland.org.

U.S., Canadian And Mexican Farm Groups Support Modernized NAFTA

Submitted by Rebecca Colnar, AgNewsWire

American Farm Bureau Federation (AFBF), The Canadian Federation of Agriculture (CFA) and Mexico's Consejo Nacional Agropecuario (CNA) sent a joint letter to Canadian, United States and Mexican government officials reiterating their calls that NAFTA re-negotiations should aim to modernize the agreement, rather than dismantle it.

The AFBF, CFA, and CNA agree that agriculture represents one of NAFTA's biggest success stories. Agricultural reciprocal trade between the three countries has grown exponentially since the agreement was implemented more than 20 years ago.

CFA President Ron Bonnett, strong in his support of the agreement, says that, "NAFTA has boosted the incomes of millions of farmers and has facilitated the development of profitable export markets."

In their discussions, the three Presidents agreed on the need to build on the original agreement's success by looking for ways to increase trade volumes.

"When it comes to overall positive results for North Ameri-

Arthritis Affects More People In Rural Communities

Over 1 in 3 adults that live in rural areas have arthritis and of those adults, approximately half report having a daily limitation due to their arthritis. A recent study from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) found that adults that live in rural areas are more likely to be affected by arthritis than those that in urban areas.

In Montana, more than 1 in 4 adults report having arthritis. Of these adults, a majority of them live in rural areas in Montana.

Montana Department of Public Health and Human Service (DPHHS) officials are working with rural communities to offer arthritis approved exercise classes and/or self-management education programs. The Montana Arthritis Program has partnered with sites across Montana to offer exercise programs including the Arthritis Foundation Exercise Program, Enhance Fitness, and the Walk with Ease program or self-management education programs such as the Active Living Every Day and the Chronic Disease Self-Management Program.

Attending an arthritis exercise class or a self-management education workshop is proven to help individuals manage their arthritis symptoms and to reduce activity limitations from arthritis.

Arthritis symptoms keep thousands of Montanans from engaging in daily routines. "The goal of the Montana Arthritis Program is to help reduce pain, decrease activity limitations, improve physical abilities, and increase confidence to help people manage their arthritis," DPHHS Director Sheila Hogan said. "This program has helped many Montanans with their arthritis and we want to continue to help Montanans to reduce and relieve their arthritis symptoms through these classes."

Heather Welch, the DPHHS Montana Arthritis Program Manager states that these classes are open to everyone. "Most of the arthritis exercise classes and the self-management workshops are free to attend but there are scholarships available if a site does charge a fee. We do not want cost to be a barrier for anyone to attend one of these beneficial programs."

To find a class near you or for more information about the Montana Arthritis Program please visit their website at www.dphhs.mt.gov/publichealth/arthritis or contact Heather Welch at (406) 444-0958 or hwelch@mt.gov.

ca's farmers and ranchers, NAFTA has proved itself as a solid foundation for trade. Just as farmers have new tools and technology for food and fiber production, we believe that an updated NAFTA agreement can help the three nations become even stronger trading partners," AFBF President Zippy Duvall said.

CNA President Bosco de la Vega, reflecting on the economic benefits of trade, said it is very clear, "The NAFTA agreement has had a positive impact for the agricultural sector, including the exponential increase in trade flows between its partners; currently NAFTA markets are characterized by high level of complementarity, the possibility to face the challenge of food security in a better way, an open trade system with clear and fair rules. Taking these into account, we believe that today the NAFTA members have a big opportunity to even increase this positive outcome."

All parties further commit to meeting with their governments to insist that NAFTA re-negotiations should be built on the principle of "doing no harm."

NAFTA discussions should seek:

1. Increased and improved regulatory alignment.
2. Improved flow of goods at border crossings.
3. Further alignment of sanitary and phytosanitary measures using a science-based approach.
4. Elimination of non-science based technical barriers to trade.
5. Revisions that reflect technological advance since implementation such as digital trade, etc.

Agriculture industries in each NAFTA country would greatly suffer from disruptions to trading relationships developed over the last 23 years. Farmers have increased productivity and improved their competitiveness to address the rapidly growing demand worldwide for healthy and sustainable food products. Losses due to NAFTA changes would severely stunt this progress.

AFBF, CFA and CNA are committed to working with their respective administrations to ensure that a modernized NAFTA continues to be a success story for all farmers.

About AFBF: The American Farm Bureau Federation is the unified, national "Voice of Agriculture" in the United States, working to enhance and strengthen the lives of rural Americans to build strong, prosperous agricultural communities. With members at the county or parish level in 50 states and Puerto Rico, AFBF is the nation's largest and most influential grassroots organization of farm and ranch families. Farm Bureau advocates in national and state capitals as well as local municipalities to advance the interest of all farmers and ranchers.

About CFA: Founded in 1935 to provide Canada's farmers with a single voice in Ottawa, the Canadian Federation of Agriculture is the country's largest general farm organization. Its members include provincial general farm organizations, as well as national and inter-provincial commodity organizations. Through its members, CFA represents over 200,000 Canadian farmers and farm families.

About CAN: The National Agricultural National Council (CNA), is a civil association, of national coverage and voluntary affiliation that was born on April 27, 1984 (34 years ago). Since the beginning it is part of the Entrepreneurial Coordinator Council (CCE), Mexico's key private entrepreneurial representative body. It is an organization of representation, defense and promotion of the agricultural activities that is integrated for organizations of producers and companies of the agricultural, livestock, food and feed processing activities and for suppliers of inputs and services related to these activities. Their members contribute with at least 75% of the agricultural GDP, livestock GDP, food and feed products GDP and total exports of agricultural, meats and food products.
