Watford City Kickstarts Middle School FFA Program

By Anna Dragseth

Watford City Middle School is the first school in the state of North Dakota to have an established middle school FFA Chapter.

Grace Dragseth, Watford City Middle School Ag Teacher, kickstarted the chapter in August, with a goal to get middle school students involved with agriculture and community service.

"FFA benefits middle schoolers, giving them a true passion to look for once they get to high school, allowing them the opportunity to explore career options," Dragseth said. "It incorporates community involvement, leadership skills, and networking, which prepares them for high school, college, and their future careers"

There are a total of 60 members with more in the process of joining. She added, "The Watford City Middle School FFA consists of a group of passionate young ag professionals who are interested in leadership positions related to agriculture."

Woodworking, welding, horticulture, floriculture, equine science, vet science, wildlife and natural resources, poultry, livestock, animal judging, job interviews, and ag sales are among many of the projects offered.

weekly FFA meetings using proper parliamentary procedure, volunteers at ag-related events, helps the community, and competes in the various middle school CDE events around the state.

The members participate in a fruit and steak fundraiser, volunteer at the Soil Conservation Banquet, and create tie-blankets for children-in-need.

Dragseth said she enjoys advising the members and providing them with "quality" opportunities. "I absolutely love seeing all of my members having fun and enjoying themselves while learning something new! I also like taking the kids on trips and watching them make new friends and experience new things that they've never done or seen before."

Dragseth hopes the organization will raise enough funds to attend more CDE competitions and the National FFA convention. She also hopes the club can help the community, volunteer more, and help her members find their niche within FFA.

Looking forward, Dragseth hopes Watford City

Middle School's FFA members' active involvement will influence other schools to implement a middle school FFA.

She explained, "I really do hope that other schools start a Middle School FFA. It really helps the kids in our school who don't fit into the "sports mold" and gives them a sense of belonging in a separate area."

Richland County Commissioners Halt Approval for Lunderby Subdivision

On Dec. 7, the Richland County Commissioners required resubmittal of the proposal for the first minor subdivision of Tract 1 Minor Subdivision Number 127, with the working name Steven Lunderby Minor Subdivision. The decision comes after a recommendation made by Property and Casualty Trust Land Use Attorney for the MT Association of Counties, Tara Dupuy that the subdivision not be approved or denied at this point due to a change to the proposed wastewater system. This change requires the subdivider to submit an amended subdivision application.

In Dupuy's letter to the commissioners she stated:

During the Richland County Commission public meeting on Dec. 6, the representative for the Steve Lunderby Minor Subdivision stated that the Montana Department of Environmental Quality had rejected the wastewater proposal proposed for the combined wastewater treatment for the meat processing plant and the domestic wastewater. Further, the representatives for the Steve Lunderby Minor Subdivision stated that they did not know who will be reviewing at least a major portion of the meat processing plant wastewater treatment and the portion of that treatment that the public voiced the most concern about, being the lagoon.

As submitted, the subdivision application for the Steve Lunderby Minor Subdivision proposes a combined treatment system for both the wastewater for the meat processing plant and domestic wastewater. It was stated during the public meeting yesterday in response to public comment that MDEQ would be reviewing and monitoring the lagoon. The representatives for the Steve Lunderby Minor Subdivision stated that it is not known at this time either who will be reviewing the lagoon or what permits/review are required. The public, pursuant to the public's Constitutional rights to know and participate in the subdivision review process, should be able to comment on any new proposals for the wastewater for the meat processing plant or a change in who reviews, permits and monitors the lagoon. These stated changes are material to the subdivision application and require an amended subdivision application to go back through the review process.

The letter will be available in its entirety on The Roundup website, roundup-

Richland Federal Credit Union Raises Funds For Montana's Only Children's Miracle Network Hospital

The Richland Federal Credit Union, Sidney, helped raise over $2,000 in funds for the Shodair Children's Hospital, Montana's only Children's Miracle Network hospital. The credit union staff put on various events including ugly sweater contests, funky flip flops, jeans on Fridays, and a recent Brawl of the Wild Contest.

"The contests are well received by our staff and members, and we can have some fun raising money for organizations. We joined other credit unions in our state 5 years ago to support Shodair Children's Hospital in Helena," said Kevin Mayer, Richland Federal Credit Union CEO.

These contests are a part of Montana's Credit Unions (MCU) successful relaunch of their Credit Unions for Kids (CU4Kids) efforts benefiting Shodair Children's Hospital. Employees at Shodair Children's Hospital and 28 Montana credit unions participated in selling one-dollar team icons to football fans that supported their team when visiting credit union lobbies. Credit unions from around the state raised over $25,000 from the MCU's inaugural Cats vs. Griz Icon Fundraiser.

The fundraising does not stop there; MCUs are committed to donating $50,000 to the local hospital in the coming years.

The Richland Federal Credit Union knows that the funds raised not only support Montana but also children in Richland and Roosevelt Counties.

"We believe this is a direct benefit to our communities that we serve as in 2020 nine children in Richland County and 17 children in Roosevelt County received treatment at Shodair," Mayer said.

"An essential part of Richland Federal Credit Union's philosophy is giving back to our community either through charity or volunteering."

The Richland Federal Credit Union plans to continue their mission of supporting non-profits and helping the community.

"Our motto has always been "People Helping People" and we will continue to support the various non-profit groups within our communities."

OBITUARIES

Annette Lyn Thiel, 51 Sidney, MT

Funeral services for Annette Lyn Thiel, 51, Sidney, MT were held at 2 p.m., Friday, Dec. 10, 2021, at Fulkerson-Stevenson Memorial Chapel, Sidney, MT, with Pastor Dustin Morgan officiating. Remembrances, condolences and pictures may be shared with the family at www.fulkersons.com.

Annette Lyn Thiel

Annette passed away on Sunday, Dec. 5, 2021, at her home in Sidney, MT.

Annette was born Sept. 19, 1970 to Ray & Betty Thiel, Sidney MT. She attended Liberty Christian School, graduating in 1988. She attended NDSU-Williston, later transferring to MSU-Billings where she studied Business Administration. From a young age Annette took on all aspects of her father's farming operations, she was his sidekick and went everywhere with him. She worked right alongside her father and her brother (Kim), operating all the equipment necessary to get the job done. In May 1990 she married Tim Partin and in February 1991 they welcomed a daughter, Cherise Partin. Even with a newborn at her side she continued to work on the farm and continue her education. In 1991 Annette planted her first crop of pumpkins (by hand) and from that point on her business/farming operations flourished. She started with 8 acres and grew her operation to 50 acres of pumpkins. She grew not only pumpkins, she also grew melons, squash, corn, sugar beets, wheat, watermelons and mini pumpkins, but she will always be known as the pumpkin lady. In 2002 she purchased the family farm from her father, Annette continued to farm the rest of her life. Annette's produce operation grew to cover a tri-state area. She delivered a majority of the produce herself and took pride in seeing the operations through to the end. Annette enjoyed the outdoors, especially fishing. She had a deep love for the land and a passion for farming. She especially loved fall and the colors that it brought on the farm. She was proud of her daughters' accomplishments throughout life but she was most proud of the arrival of her newborn granddaughter, Hailey. Annette enjoyed when her brother Kim and his family would come to the farm on the weekends. Everyone enjoyed camping, fishing, and bonfires. She was preceded in death by her beloved dog Bark Bark.

Annette is survived by her daughter Cherise Partin and granddaughter Hailey Dahl, Sidney, MT; father Raymond Thiel, Sidney, MT; mother Betty Njos, Dickinson, ND; brother Kim (Dawn) Thiel, Dickinson, ND; nephews Josh and Taylor Thiel and niece Moriah Thiel all of Dickinson, ND.

Annette was a kind soul who seen the good in everyone, she will be deeply missed.

Richard A. Lewis, 90 Fairview, MT

Graveside services for Richard A. Lewis, 90, Fairview, MT were held at 10 a.m., Tuesday, Dec. 14, 2021, at Richland Memorial Park Cemetery, Sidney, MT with Fr. Jim O'Neil, St. Catherine's Catholic Church, Fairview, MT officiating. Fulkerson-Stevenson Funeral Home, Sidney, MT, is caring for the family. Remembrances, condolences and pictures may be shared with the family at www.fulkersons.com.

Richard A. Lewis

Richard A. Lewis was born March 27, 1931 to Edward and Mary Lewis in Tolley, ND. He grew up in the Tolley area and attended school there.

On Dec. 1, 1969, Richard and Mary Ann were united in marriage in Glendive, MT. In 1971, they moved to Fairview, MT. In 1973, they adopted Shannon and in 1978, they adopted Mary.

Richard did various jobs from driving cattle truck to carpentry work. In later years, he drove tender truck for Mon-Kota and Helena, which he loved because he got to visit with all the farmers in the area.

Richard and Mary Ann every year grew a big garden. They always canned corn and tomatoes, and always had enough produce left over for any neighbors that needed anything. Richard love playing cards from pinochle to cribbage. He always knew what cards were in the other person's hand, or led us to believe he did. He really enjoyed playing cards with Sean and drinking coffee with Casey. Richard loved to watch television; his favorites were reruns of MASH and The Golden Girls.

We will miss him dearly.

Richard passed away Dec. 8, 2021 at Sidney Health Center.

Survivors are his daughters, Shannon (Dean) Palmer, Culbertson, MT, Mary St. George, Helena, MT, Marcia (Troy) Mickulin, Laurel, MT; nephew Rick (Deb) Fehrs, St Paul, MN; nieces Jackie (Arlin) Moran and Cheryl (Mark) Steffan both of Sidney, MT; brother-in-laws Frank (Shelia) Sticka, Joseph Sticka, both of Sidney, MT; sister-in-laws Marcella Jones, Sidney, MT, Kathy (John) Tschantre, Choteau, MT; and his two grandsons Sean and Casey Palmer who meant the world to him.

Richard was preceded in death by his mom and dad Edward and Mary Lewis, his wife Mary Ann Lewis, sister Lorraine Fehrs, brother-in-law Jerry Fehrs, sister Eileen Johnson and brother-in-law Ervin Johnson, mother-in-law Catherine Sticka and father-in-law Joe Sticka, and brother-in-law Kip Jones.

Corrections

In the Nov. 11 issue of The Roundup on page 1A the name of the drones was misspelled it should have been DJI Phantom 4 instead of DJI Fantom 4.

In the Dec. 8 issue of The Roundup in the story Enjoy Holiday Events in Williston under the Holiday stroll the following events did not take place: free photos with Santa at Jackie's Therapeutic Massage, drink and app specials for those 21+ wearing ugly Christmas sweaters, and Christmas trees sold by the Boy Scouts, also the time for the event should have been 5-8 p.m. not 3-8 p.m.

In the story entitled "Eagle Tournament To Bring Teams From Across the Country" on page 3A in the Dec. 1 issue, The Sidney wrestling team will be defending their four-time state wrestling team titles this year.

The MDHC Announces Glass Art By Paige Bowman Exhibition

Submitted by Joe Bradley, Board President MonDak Heritage Center

The MonDak Heritage Center announces an exhibition of Glass Art by Paige Bowman, on display through Feb. 26, 2022 at MonDak Heritage Center, 120 3rd Ave SE, Sidney. All exhibited items are available for purchase.

Paige Bowman is a self-taught glass artist living in Savage, MT. Paige started experimenting with glass several years ago when she lived in Billings while pursuing a degree in computer science from MSU-Billings. Since retiring, she is devoting her days to the kiln and the torch to discover what can be made out of this fascinating medium. Her work has been exhibited at Yellowstone Art Museum and Glass Hole Gallery, Billings, MT as well as The Harwood Gallery, Albuquerque, NM. In addition to glass, she also has worked with beads, porcelain, ceramics, and China painting.

Paige states: "I love experimenting with glass, trying to find the forms that it can take and discovering new techniques. The way glass flows when heat is applied mimics water, which caused me to think of the ocean. I became very interested in oceanic creatures and the fascinating shapes they make. As a person who has never visited the ocean, it was like playing in a whole new wonderland. The fluidity of glass is endlessly fascinating to me. The way it can be manipulated with torch or kiln using molds or free-forming opens the doors to endless possibilities. The work in this show represents the last three years of experimenting and pushing to find new avenues to explore. As a self-taught artist, I have tried to hammer out the knowledge of how to manipulate the materials from the materials themselves.

Using found objects in relation to the glass, I have been inspired to try new combinations with a devil-may care attitude of "try it to see if it works." It only cost a little bit of blood and flesh to make.

Visit the MonDak to see this unique exhibition! The MonDak Heritage Center is open Tuesday-Friday from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. and Saturday from 1-4 p.m. Admission is free. For more information call 406-433-3500 or e-mail mdhc@richland.org. Visit us online at www.mondakheritagecenter.org.

Richland County Commissioners...

According to the staff report submitted to the commissioners by contracted planner Joel Nelson, the proposed subdivision is located at 12314 County Road 351 approximately 3/4 mile south of Sidney along the east side of County Road 351. The current 59.39 acre parcel contains Lunderby Trucking, Eastern Montana Meats, a commercial feed lot and related uses. The proposed two lot subdivision would create Lot 2, a 2.06 acre lot containing the Eastern Montana Meats building and Lot 1, a 57.806 acre lot containing Lunderby Trucking, the feedlot, and other related and commercial accessory buildings. Lot 1 would be severed by an existing well & wastewater treatment system. Lot 2 was proposed to connect to a new off-site wastewater treatment system located on the applicant's adjacent property to the southwest of the subdivision. Lot 1 is currently served by an onsite well and onsite wastewater treatment system.

An open public meeting was held on Dec. 6 at the Commissioners Chambers in the Richland County Courthouse. The meeting was attended by representatives for the Steven Lunderby Minor Subdivision, concerned neighbors and others opposing the approval of the subdivision. Opponents to the subdivision stated various concerns such as loss of property value, possible contamination to existing water wells and increased truck traffic. County officials stated that the purpose of the meeting was in regards to the subdivision only and not current, or potential problems with the operation of the businesses on site.

Forrest J. Mandeville, Forrest Mandeville Consulting, is representing the Steven Lunderby Minor Subdivision. Mandeville has indicated that they do plan to amend and resubmit the proposal to the commissioners for reconsideration.

The Sidney basketball teams held their first home games against Dawson Co. Dec. 10. The boys lost 47-64 and the girls won 57-46. On Dec. 11 the boys (69-58) and girls (50-46) both won against Baker at home. Above middle: Austin Taylor drains a three pointer against Dawson Co. It's Never Bedtime Without Books For Miss Olivia

Submitted by Kelly Reisig, MBA Director

Olivia's bedtime routine includes reading at least 5 books every night. She has a variety of favorites including "Fox in Socks", "Green Eggs and Ham," "Marvin K Mooney "Will You Please Go Now," "Fox the Tiger," and "The Wonky Donkey." Her love for books helped her to learn how to read before enrolling in Kindergarten. Olivia is the daughter of Shaun and Nikki Keller, Sidney.

To encourage a love of reading in children, the Sidney-Richland County Library is promoting "1,000 Books before Kindergarten", a nationwide program that encourages parents and caregivers to read aloud with their children every day. Research continually shows that children who are read aloud to every day before kindergarten will have higher scores and more success when they begin school. Most importantly, sharing books with children promotes a lifelong love of books and learning.

The theme of the Sidney-Richland County Library program is "The Magic of Reading". Children receive a small prize at each 100-level milestone, and at the end of the program participants earn a certificate and t-shirt for successful completion. This program is free to children ages 0-4 and their families. Stop by the library to sign up today!

Holiday Dinners

By Lois Stephens

Holiday dinners at my house have certainly changed throughout the course of my life. When I was a youngster, holiday meals were true extravaganzas. Three generations of family sat down at the same table, which itself was overburdened and groaning under the weight of a huge turkey, stuffing, mashed potatoes, gravy, a variety of salads, candied sweets, stuffed dates and olives, and several cranberry dishes, just to name a few items on that table. We stuffed ourselves until we could barely move, and then the pumpkin and mincemeat pies made their appearances. Needless to say, holiday dinners left us in food comas for hours.

It isn't like that any longer. Through the years, holiday gatherings have become less and less lavish and less and less populated. At this point in my life, simple meals work well, don't crash the pocketbook, and allow us to feel quite satisfied but not stuffed to bursting. For the most part, simpler meals mean less planning, less preparation, and less stress.

We now try to share holiday dinners with the neighbors when possible, and this year they were fortunate enough to escape Nevada and come to their mountain home for Thanksgiving. I told the neighbor lady before she got here that I already had a fully cooked, smoked turkey breast that we would share with them prior to Thanksgiving, and that my husband had bought thick, luscious steaks for us all to enjoy on Thanksgiving Day itself. Because we have limited freezer space, I had stored these items in the freezer in her garage.

The neighbors arrived on schedule, so we decided to have the turkey meal on Tuesday, and enjoy the steaks on Thanksgiving. We would hold the Tuesday meal at our residence and have the Thanksgiving meal at theirs. We try to share preparation of these meals so I agreed to cook up the turkey, gravy, provide cranberries, and have some sort of salad, while they would bring potatoes and pie.

Tuesday arrived blustery and cold. I decided that rather than lighting the barbecue to heat up the turkey breast, I would simply prepare it on the wood stove. I do a lot of heating and cooking on that stove, so I figured this would let us feel more like the Pilgrims if we actually made part of the meal using wood heat.

The turkey, which I had retrieved from the neighbors' freezer a few days prior, heated on the stove. The neighbors arrived, so I started the gravy. Our friends also brought garlic bread, which required heating in the toaster oven. The oven is small, these were huge slabs of garlic bread, so we could only heat one piece at a time. The neighbor slipped the first roll into the oven, and two minutes later it was ready, hot and smelling delicious. The gravy had not quite thickened, so we delayed a minute so the gravy could come to a full boil. Meanwhile I hauled the turkey off the stove, opened the foil it heated in, and discovered to my chagrin that it was not quite hot. I grabbed two fry pans, put turkey slices into the pans, and placed them back on the stove to heat quickly.

The first slab of garlic bread by this time was cooling, so my husband ate it while my neighbor started the second roll. The gravy finally thickened; I set it aside, we decided that the potatoes that the neighbors had brought were a bit cool, so we reheated them in the microwave.

The second slice of garlic bread finished heating, we pulled the, by now, somewhat dry slices of turkey off the stove, added potatoes and gravy to the mix, and called it good. We heated the remaining two slices of garlic toast, and everyone had plenty to eat. Not quite the turkey dinners of my youth, but we had good company, everything was edible even if slightly over or under done, and all was well. We had plenty of pumpkin pie to finish the meal, so who could ask for more?

Even though the turkey meal wasn't quite up to snuff, that was fine, we still had Thanksgiving and luscious steaks to look forward to.

Thanksgiving Day arrived bright and clear. We had planned to eat about 4:30, so at 4:15 my husband and I grabbed the remaining pumpkin pie and headed over to the neighbors. As we rounded the corner, I could smell the potatoes, onions, and peppers frying in the neighbors' air fryer. It smelled better and better the closer we came to their porch.

We greeted our friends, I handed her the pumpkin pie, and she said to me "Where are the steaks? Did you forget them?" I looked at her and said, "Last time I saw them, they were in your freezer." We looked at each other, dumbfounded, then we started to laugh.

Needless to say, we did not eat at 4:30. We retrieved a three-inch-thick frozen slab of meat from the freezer, placed the frozen brick into cold water, and poured ourselves large adult drinks. The potatoes by this time were more than done, so we all ate some potatoes and had another drink. We visited, checked the status of the thawing meat, and had another beverage. My husband finally got the steaks apart, we seasoned them well, placed the steaks on the grill, and had another drink.

The steaks, slathered in mushrooms, turned out superbly well. The entire meal was delicious, even if eaten in several courses. It possibly can rate as one of the top Thanksgiving meals ever.

I wonder what Christmas dinner will be like? I wonder now how I ever managed to have large meals prepared and served on time.

The neighbors will be back for Christmas, I have no idea what sort of meal we will plan, but I do know we will all be well aware of who has the protein, and in which house it might be stored. I think I will also stock up on wine, beer, and vodka just in case dinner gets delayed a few hours because of human error.

Roy Melvin Hartle, 90 Billings, MT formerly of Sidney, MT

Roy Melvin Hartle, born to Clarence and Alena Hartle on July 8, 1931, passed away late in the morning on Dec. 11, 2021 at Billings Clinic, Billings, MT. He is preceded in death by his parents and wife of almost 64 years, Patricia Martha (Eastman) Hartle who passed away on June 22, 2021. He is survived by their 5 children and their spouses, Wade and Daniela Hartle, Dana and Trudy Hartle, Tamara and Craig Dozier, Wendy and Jeff Hodges, Shanna Hartle, multiple grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Roy Melvin Hartle

Born as an only child in Sidney, MT and raised in various towns as his father traveled for work, Roy eventually landed back in Sidney and graduated from Sidney High School. He decided to enlist in the US Army and worked various jobs including time in the Signal Corps, working as a cook, and serving as an MP riding the trains transporting soldiers heading to the west coast on their way to Korea. Roy served state-side for 3 years from 1951 thru 1954 before being honorably discharged. While in the military, Roy sent his money home to his mother to support her as his father had passed years earlier.

Upon leaving the service with an honorable discharge, Roy returned to Montana and worked in the construction field for several years. In 1957, Roy found the love of his life, Patricia Eastman, and swept her off feet in whirlwind romance of 7 dates before proposing. The couple eventually ended up back in Sidney where they spent most of their lives raising their 5 children in various homes in and around Sidney. Roy went to work for the Post Office and made it to Postmaster before leaving for an oil field related job. After a few years he returned to the Post Office as a Clerk/Carrier and that is the job from which he retired in 1996. Roy found joy in raising and caring not only for various dogs and cats but other smaller animals including rabbits in the backyard when they lived in town and various poultry and other farm animals when they lived out of town on small acreages.

While in Sidney, the couple became avid bowlers to the point of braving Montana winter roads not only to attend bowling tournaments but to bowl in weekly leagues in Glendive and Williston, ND when the bowling alley in Sidney was closed for several years. They continued bowling in leagues even after moving to Billings later in life. Roy continued to enjoy going to the bowling alley to socialize even when he could no longer bowl due to his failing eyesight.

Per his wishes, Roy will be cremated without services and interred with his wife's ashes in the Yellowstone National Cemetery, Laurel, MT.
