McKenzie County Fair This Weekend

By Stephanie Ler

This year's McKenzie County Fair has many opportunities for you to "find your happy", the 2017 fair theme. The fair begins on Thursday, July 6th, and runs through Saturday, July 8th, at the McKenzie County Fairgrounds, in Watford City.

The Fair officially begins with the Fair parade down Main Street in Watford City at 4:00 on Thursday, July 6th. Join the community for a free beef barbeque at the multi-purpose building at 5:30, served by the cattlemen. Be sure to wear your fair button!

A staple of all county fairs, the 4-H livestock shows will be going on beginning at 9:00 on Thursday in the Livestock Show Arena. The shows include swine, goat, sheep, beef breeding, market beef, and round robin showmanship. The livestock sale will take place at 2:00 on Friday in the Show Arena.

At 6:30 on Thursday, the annual Olaf Leiseth Jr. Memorial Draft Horse Competition will take place in the rodeo arena. In this competition, named after a member of the Long X Wagon Team, draft horses will complete a timed obstacle course. Registration for the event closes at 5:30.

If you've got an old vehicle in the back forty, register for the Demolition Derby at 2:00 on Friday at the North Entrance to the fairgrounds. Registration closes at 5:15, and inspections close at 5:30. Beginning at 6:00, all approved vehicles will enter the Rodeo Arena to smash into opponents, until only one running vehicle remains. Adult tickets are $10, youth tickets, for ages 6-13, are $5, and ages 6 and under are free.

Saturday is the day for all things rodeo! The 27th Annual Youth Rodeo begins at 9:00 at the Indoor Arena. Young cowboys and cowgirls from ages 8 to 15 will participate in barrel racing, pole bending, breakaway roping, goat tying, a flag race and steer riding, dressed in full western attire. For the younger crowd, ages three to five years, the Lil' Buckaroo Rodeo will take place at 2:00 in the Livestock Show Arena. Lil' Buckaroos will compete for prizes in stick horse barrel racing, steer roping a dummy steer, and goat tail untying. The professionals begin at 6:00 in the Rodeo Arena at the North Dakota Rodeo Association annual rodeo. Adult tickets are $10, youth tickets, for ages 6-13, are $5, and ages 6 and under are free.

On both Friday and Saturday, wrap up your evening with music by Jeremiah James and the Prairie Drifters, a country band based out of Bismarck.

Visit the North Star Amusements carnival to test your luck at the midway games, grab some carnival grub, and take a ride on a few of the amusement rides. Rides are available for both children and adults. The carnival will be open Thursday evening, and again at 2:00 on both Friday and Saturday. Ride tickets and passes can be purchased from North Star on the midway.

If carnival games aren't high-stakes enough, Freddie Prez will be on a 45-foot stage throughout the weekend, offering fair-goers a chance to win $10,000 by tossing a Frisbee or playing Blackout Bingo! Let the kids play in the shade at Carly's Funtastic Kids Zone, opening at 11:00 daily. The Kids Zone features many different interactive activities for children.

Other exciting events include Keith Raymond, a strolling magician, who will be roaming the fairgrounds throughout the weekend; face painting, old time photos, the National Wild Turkey Federation Shooting Booth, and a cake walk at 4PM on Saturday.

You'll be sure to "find your happy" at any of the exciting events planned for the McKenzie County Fair! Tickets for all events and fair buttons are available at the financial institutions in Watford City. Fair buttons are $5, and are good for all 3 days of the fair. Children 6 and under are admitted free.

For information about the fair, contact Carolyn Levang at 701-770-6938. For information about the youth Rodeo, contact Kadie Sorenson at 701-570-6407.

Stockman Bank

Supports Fairview Schools Through Municipal Bonds Purchase

Stockman Bank's support of Fairview and the Richland County community continues to grow. The bank participated in the purchase of Fairview school district's general obligation bonds. (Richland County School District No. 13, Fairview Elementary School; and Richland County High School District No. 3, Fairview High School).

The proceeds from the bonds will be used to refinance the current elementary and high school district's general obligation bonds. These bonds will be used for the purpose of improvements to the Fairview school campus, including a new gymnasium, weight room and locker rooms, administrative office and lobby; and also constructing a commons area, concessions and enclosed hallway to connect the cafeteria to the High School, as well as other related improvements. A portion of the bonds will also be used for costs associated with the sale and issuance of the bonds. The new bonds are at a lower rate which will provide significant savings to local taxpayers.

"Stockman Bank has been a long-time supporter of our local schools in Richland County. I am very excited that we could continue our support through this bond purchase, as I know it will help maintain and preserve our schools for generations to come," comments Garth Kallevig, Branch President of Stockman Bank Sidney. "We are truly invested in our community and supporting our schools is just another way that Stockman Bank continues to give back."

Public Advisory

Sidney Roundabout Construction

The construction of the Roundabout at the intersection of Highway 16 and Highways 200/23 south of Sidney is scheduled to begin on the week of July 10.

This advisory is a general description of the overall 2017 season. Updates will be forwarded prior to specific events that will substantially impact the traveling public.

July will see limited travel impacts in the area during the construction of an adjacent detour. However, be prepared for activity in and around the project. Traffic control will be in place. Be prepared for equipment and personnel throughout the project. Flaggers may be present as well.

In early August, the detour will be opened to facilitate two lane, two way traffic on all roadways, including Highway 16. The detour will have a Highway 16, Highways 200/23 intersection. Highway 16 will continue to be thru traffic and Highways 200/23 will be stop sign controlled.

From August through early November the majority of construction activity will have only limited delays or impacts to traffic, as trucks will be hauling materials to and from the job.

The detour will stay in use throughout the winter. Project completion is scheduled for July 2018.

For additional information, please call 406-482-9875.

Hardy-Hurley Benefit July 8

By Jordan Hall

Alyxandra Hurley was diagnosed with an extremely rare medical disorder, Idiopathic Pulmonary Hemosiderosis, when she was 15 months old. More than twenty years later, Alyxandra – known to her friends and family as Alyx – has received an important and long-awaited medical procedure. She received new lungs on Saturday.

Hurley, formerly Hardy, is married to local farmer, Timothy, of Fairview. Timothy and Alyx were married in December of 2016. Shortly before the wedding, Alyx was told that she could wait three or so years before a lung transplant would be necessary, but by March her medical prognosis had changed.

This medical crisis was worsened by the unwillingness of the Mayo Clinic to consider Alyx for a lung transplant because Idiopathic Pulmonary Hemosiderosis is an immune disorder, which means that there is no guarantee the lungs will be accepted by her body in the long term. This more pessimistic medical assessment is due to Alyx's diagnosis being so rare that there has been an inadequate evaluation of transplant success. In fact, when Alyx was first diagnosed, she was only the first such case ever seen by the Denver Children's Hospital.

Alyx's mother, Sherri Hardy, explained to the Roundup, "When [Alyx] was diagnosed, this was such a rare disease that she was the first person they had seen in Denver Children's Hospital with the diagnosis. Now, all this time later, she was denied lungs by Mayo Clinic because it is an auto-immune disease, meaning it won't go away just because she has new lungs. They don't know necessarily if this will work forever."

Hardy continued, "The reason Mayo didn't want to [consider her for a transplant] is because they couldn't guarantee life-long results, but that's precisely why Phoenix St. Joseph took her. They were eager to see how someone with her diagnosis will do with the transplant."

While speaking from Alyx's hospital room where she was recovering well from surgery, Hardy explained that the surgery went well, saying, "It went really well, and it was definitely time and she got a really good set of lungs. We had asked for before and after pictures of both the old and new lungs, and it's remarkable. Because of her small stature, the donor had to be a child. We're very thankful."

Hardy explained how kind people back home had been. Timothy's brother, Ty, has been operating their farm, which has been a real benefit to the couple. Other friends in the community decided to host a benefit for the medical expenses incurred by Alyx in her transplant and what is anticipated to be a six-month recovery.

Hardy said, "The fundraiser is being hosted by a group of ladies in Fairview. We're thankful for all the people back home who care."

The Alyxandra Hardy Hurley Benefit Dinner and Auction will be held at the Waterhole in Fairview on July 8. A silent auction will be held from 5pm to 8pm, with a roast beef dinner beginning at 8pm. The dinner will have a free-will donation. There will also be live music during the event for participants to enjoy.

A benefit account has also been set up at Stockman Bank in Sidney, under the name of Alyxandra Hurley Benefit.

Sunrise Art Festival to be Held July 7-8

By Jordan Hall

The 27th Annual Sunrise Festival of the Arts will be held July 7 and 8, and with it will come a whole host of opportunities to the public for involvement and entertainment. Held at Veterans Memorial Park in Sidney, hundreds of attendees and many vendors will converge to celebrate the arts, crafts and entertainment.

Madina McGlothern, the communications manager for the Sidney Chamber of Commerce since February, spoke to the Roundup about the upcoming events, and explained that they are expecting new vendors, new events, and fresh entertainment.

McGlothern stated, "We try to continue to keep the event new and interesting every year, so even though the basis of the event stays the same, which is to celebrate the arts, there's always something new from last year. There are new people, new visitors, new vendors, new art, new entertainment and new opportunities."

When asked what kind of entertainment will be new this year, McGlothern said, "Vendors always change, so the art is always new. Additionally, this year we have the concert in the park the night before, with TigirLily. They'll be performing at 7pm on Friday and that's free to the public."

TigirLily is a duo musical act of two sisters from North Dakota, Kendra and Krista. They have 4.9 million views on YouTube, and have opened for acts like Big and Rich, Justin Taylor and more. Combining pop, country and folk music, the pair has debuted an album that reached the top 20 for country music on iTunes and the top 10 on the Country Heatseekers Chart. They have also performed at gubernatorial inaugurations, popular venues like the House of Blues, the PBR rodeo, World of Outlaws Racing and other sporting events. TigirLily also received the 2016 breakout artist award at the North Dakota Music Awards.

Children will also have their own entertainment at "Kids Korner," which is sponsored by Montana Dakota Utilities.

Aside from musical entertainment, patrons and visitors to the Sunrise Festival of the Arts will be able to become hands-on in their art experience, with opportunities provided for art classes. Five total classes will be offered, and for a small supplies fee, visitors can learn how to create their own art and will be able to take home their artistic creation.

"We'll have art classes throughout the day," McGlothern told the Roundup, "and that information is available on the website."

Along with art classes, door prizes will be given away and those who purchase buttons will receive discounts at local business partners of the Chamber of Commerce.

"Our corporate sponsor is XTO, which infuses us with additional resources to help with our advertising and putting on a quality festival," McGlothern said.

She continued, saying "The most important thing for us to get across to people is that there's still room for vendors and visitors. We want people to participate and display their art and interact, and people to come and visit and take part."

McGlothern estimates five or six hundred people take part in the festival annually, and hopes that the upcoming festival in 2017 will see as many – or more – people take the time to enjoy the opportunities offered.

Chamber Announces New Executive Director

The Sidney Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors Search Committee has named Susan Joy as its new Executive Director. Susan's first day with the Chamber will be Wednesday, July 5th. As Executive Director, Susan will oversee the Chamber's operations as well as work with its staff and volunteers to ensure Chamber programs and services run with the high degree of excellence that its membership expects.

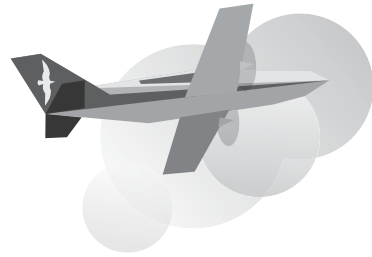

"I look forward to working with the board of directors and chamber members on projects and strategies to promote Sidney and the surrounding area as a great place to live, work, and play," said Joy.

Before joining the Chamber, Susan served as the Executive Director of the Headwaters Science Center in Bemidji, Minnesota. In her role she managed a team of ten employees and was responsible for the development of the annual budget, membership recruitment and retention, fundraising, community partnerships and management of over a dozen different grants.

Susan, her husband Dan, and their children relocated to Sidney when Dan was appointed the Director at the MonDak Heritage Museum.

"It was vitally important to the committee that our new director have a solid background understanding in a membership driven organization. It was equally important to find a real champion for Sidney. We were thrilled to find that mix of experience and enthusiasm in Susan Joy," said Kelly Reisig, Chamber President.

Malta Swim Meet Results

Last weekend a small number of Sidney Tiger Sharks headed up to Malta for their swim meet. We took 12 swimmers who worked very hard to make it to Sunday. All but two made it to Sunday in at least one event and many made it in all. Morgan Kindopp set a pool record on Saturday with her 25 free and then again on Sunday breaking her own record with a 16.8 and coming close to the federation record. She also brought home the high point trophy in her age group. We are about half way through the season and are looking forward to the next 3 meets
