Stitching Through Time

Attend this year's Roosevelt County Fair Fashion Revue on Wednesday, Aug. 10 at the Old Armory, Culbertson. "This year should be really exciting," Ardis Oelkers, MSU Extension agent and fashion revue coordinator, said. Enjoy delicious refreshments at 6:30 p.m. with the program getting underway at 7 p.m. Enjoy a stitch in time with clothing from past fashion revues. Clothing as early as 1968 will take the runway. Look back into the past, and see what was flattering in the '60s or even in the '70s. The '80s and '90s brought more traditional fashions while the 2000s brought bright colors and fun new looks. All of these fashions are great for reminiscing the past. Taking center stage for a performance that is sure to please are the musical sounds of Anna Ragozza, Verbainia, Italy. Traveling across the United States to attend the fashion revue, Ms. Ragozza will sing in Italian and English. Enjoy the beautiful Italian language intermingled with our own. The highlight of the evening is the young sewers in our county. These young ladies have sewed their own garments and will showcase their clothing at the fashion revue. Each outfit is a creation of the person's own style and personality. Come and see what is hot for the season! The Roosevelt County Fair Fashion Revue is free and open to the public. Register for door prizes and enjoy a great night of light entertainment. This is one fair event you won't want to miss!

Duathlon On Saturday, Aug 6

To whom it may concern:

To help promote better health and wellness in Eastern Montana, the Richland County running/biking club will be sponsoring a duathlon on Saturday, Aug 6.

Because we are a not-for-profit organization we are continually looking for donations, but that is only part of the reason that you are receiving this letter. The primary reason for sending you this letter is to ask for participation. We are hoping that a few companies will put a team or two together to join us in the duathlon. Participation in the event is a great way to encourage team morale and to promote health and safety.

In case you are not familiar with the event, the duathlon will consist of a 5K (3.1-mile) run, followed by a 10K (6.2 mile) biking event and then an additional 5K run. Participants can choose to compete as individuals or as teams.

As I mentioned above, we are ultimately looking for people to participate in the event, but contributions to the event will be accepted as well. All sponsors will have their names listed in the race pamphlet and those who donate $100 or more will be listed on the official race t-shirts.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at the number or email address listed below. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Tim Fine

Dr. Dirt Special

Old Vs. New Earth

By Jerome Kessler

"Debate over the age of the universe and earth and the duration of the Genesis creation days have . . . deeply divided" the Christian community. So says Hugh Ross, astronomer, pastor, and author of the book, A Matter of Days: Resolving a Creation Controversy. In his book (which was loaned to me by my son) Dr. Ross says that it is his hope that his work will "bring reconciliation" to this controversy.

Ross's book states that the scientific community almost uniformly agrees that the earth is 4.5 billion years old. This conclusion is based on analysis of radioactive uranium decay, astronomical data, etc. But many Bible readers say the earth is only about 6000 years old. That conclusion was reached, in the 17th century, by John Lightfoot and James Ussher. Ussher went so far as to say that creation occurred "the week of October 18-24, 4004 B.C. [and] the creation of Adam [occurred] on October 23 at 9 a.m. 45th meridian time." Their conclusions were made by studying Old Testament records of Hebrew genealogy.

Ross's book says that fossils were discovered in the early 1800s – and needed to be explained. Dinosaurs and other once-living species needed to be explained. To compound the "age of the earth problem" there was the publication, in 1859, of Charles Darwin's The Origin of Species. While Darwin himself said that life has "been originally breathed by the Creator," it has been widely assumed that his theory of Evolution stands in opposition to the Garden of Eden creation story.

Dr. Ross says that early church scholars (Augustine and others) politely discussed the implications of the Genesis timeline. They realized that belief in the age of creation "has little bearing on the essential teachings about God's redemptive provision for repentant human beings." It has only been in the last few hundred years, however, that "young earth" and "old earth" proponents have lined up against each other. They vehemently argue their viewpoints . . . arguments which have driven many potential Christians from church altogether. A word-for-word interpretation of the Bible has been made a prerequisite for church membership. Soul-searching Christians were told that they needed to ignore the scientific evidence (on the age of the earth) and accept as doctrine the "six 24-hour day" story of creation.

There is, according to Dr. Ross, a solution to this dilemma. He says that the controversy all hinges on one little word – the interpretation of the Hebrew word for day, which is yom. The actual word can be "used to indicate any of four time periods: (a) some portion of daylight hours, (b) sunrise to sunset, (c) sunset to sunrise, or (d) a segment of time without any reference to solar days (from weeks to a year to several years to an age or epoch)." To put it another way, Dr. Ross says that God's "six days" of creation could certainly have occurred over "six epochs" of human time.

Some people say the "seventh day" of creation is still upon us. Dinosaurs and other species have certainly gone extinct; and new species (by cross-breeding, DNA mutation, and natural selection) have occasionally developed. But the rate at which these changes occur is exceedingly slow. Even if you accept as fact that the universe is extremely old (as astrophysicists believe) this is still "not ample time for a naturalist account of life" to explain where we are at today. As Dr. Ross puts it, "a 14-billion year old universe is vastly too young for any conceivable natural-process scenario to yield, on its own, even the simplest living organism." And so Dr. Ross

(along with his God-believing colleagues) believe that there must be "an 'interventionist' (that is, miraculous) aspect to life's origin and development."

Dr. Ross's book is certainly thought-provoking. He wrote it with the intention of resolving a controversy. Pat Robertson, moderator of The 700 Club, has said that Ross's book was "masterfully" written. Robertson agreed that "it is entirely plausible that a day on Earth might be one thing, a solar day another, and a day in the universe another entity altogether." According to Dr. Ross, this viewpoint has the potential to bring to an end the animosity that has heretofore existed between the religious and the scientific communities.

Richland County Accepting ECP Applications For Flood Damage Until Aug. 18

Richland County has been approved to implement the Emergency Conservation Program (ECP) due to floods. Producers need to file and ECP application with the FSA before starting work on land damaged by flood water. Emergency Conservation Program is a cost share program which assists producers with damage caused by excessive rain and the floods that have occurred. Signup for the program begins on June 20, 2011 and ends Aug. 18, 2011.

A producer qualifying for ECP assistance may receive cost-share levels not to exceed 75% of the eligible cost of restoration measures. The Richland County Committee has been approved for the following conservation practices to correct damage due to the flood:

EC1 – Removing Debris from Farmland: Practice is used for removing debris from farmland. A typical example of this is taking debris off cropland and fences.

EC2 – Grading, Shaping, Releveling, or Similar Measures: Practice is used for grading, shaping, and leveling land that has been damaged by the flood and is returned to agriculture use. Example – Land has erosion caused by flood and leveling of the land is needed to restore it.

EC3 – Restoring Permanent Fences: Practice corrects damage to fences caused by the flood. Example – Fences in water gaps which have been washed out due to the high water. Cost-share is calculated up to 75% of the actual cost, after they are adjusted based on the age of the fence.

Age of fence: Allowable actual cost factor
0-5 years old 100% of computed cost-share
6-10 years old 75% of computer cost-share
11-30 years old 60% of computed cost-share
Over 30 years old 0% of computed cost-share

EC4 – Restoring Conservation Structures and Other Installations: Practice restores conservation structures and installation damaged by the flood. Example – Restoration of dams, ponds that have been destroyed by the flood.

Eligibility for cost share assistance is based on a minimum of $1,000 of eligible damage. All requests for cost share are subject to the availability of funds. Producers are encouraged to provide the FSA office with the following data at the time of application: Location of the damage and extent of the damage, such as length of fence, time needed to remove debris, damage to land or conservation structures with estimates of cost to repair. Please call the office at 406-433-2103 to schedule an appointment so we can prepare some of the application data prior to the appointment.

Sidney Public Schools Professional Development Survey

By Dan Farr

Sidney Public Schools Superintendent

Sidney Public Schools in cooperation with a taskforce of the Montana University System is requesting your assistance and that of every adult member of your business or household with the completion of a very short survey (5-15 minutes) assessing the educational and professional needs of ALL adult community members throughout Eastern Montana and the surrounding region.

What began as a discussion about expanding higher education opportunities in August 2009 for the residents of eastern Montana is still a work in progress and through the efforts of a taskforce established between community members, Sidney Public Schools and the Montana University System, we are working to make ongoing professional development and expanded higher education opportunities a reality for area residents and students. The taskforce was brought together by the Montana Commissioner of Higher Education. The primary purpose of the taskforce is the expansion of educational opportunities for Eastern Montana using the expertise of the various units of the Montana University System. Members of the Task Force will be meeting with the Board of Regents in September to further educational access for the region that will complement and expand upon current learning opportunities. Specifically, key goals in our missions include:

1. to provide a broad assortment of educational programs and opportunities to area residents (two and four-year degrees),
2. to provide master level programs in education and other areas of identified need,
3. to provide needed professional development,
4. to provide adult enrichment classes in areas of interest,
5. to provide vocational training classes leading to the awarding of a certificate or license, and on a separate but related thread,
6. to expand dual credit opportunities for area students allowing them to earn college credit while taking approved dual enrollment courses that lead to the attainment of selected degrees for adult learners.

The ultimate goal is to bring a broad spectrum of classes to the region utilizing the resources of Montana University System, adjunct faculty locally/regionally and through distance learning models (internet, ITV).

The purpose of this study is to learn more about professional development and degree needs (i.e., associates, bachelors, masters) in Eastern Montana and the surrounding region. Information obtained will be used to develop strategies for working with two (2) and four (4) year colleges and universities belonging to Montana University System and affiliated higher education systems. Your input will be kept confidential and will be used to help guide the MUS Taskforce. The survey may be completed by accessing the survey located on-line at <http://sidney.k12.mt.us>. On the Sidney Public School's home page under Announcements, click on the Survey Link, Higher Education Survey, to read more about the survey and to begin and complete the survey. The survey will be active through Aug. 29.

The MSU Taskforce and Sidney Schools thanks you in advance for your time and for your input.

Cheer/Drill Team Camp Set For Aug. 8

The first Sidney youth Cheer/Drill Team Camp will take place Aug. 8 at the Central School gym.

The camp will be for students in grades 2-8. Campers will be split into two groups, grades 2-4 and grades 5-8. The camp will take place in two sessions, a morning session from 9 a.m.- noon and an afternoon session from 1-3 p.m. The cost to attend will be $25 and includes a camp T-shirt and bottled water.

To register contact Lisa Gorder at 406-482-9672 or 406-480-3193. Even though phone registration is preferred, registration forms will be available at the Richland County Fair sponsor tent Aug. 3 and Aug. 6 from 3-5 p.m.

The day following the camp, Aug. 9, there will be a trunk show/fundraiser for Sidney Eaglette drill team member and 2012 Miss Montana Outstanding Teen, Jalyssa Gorder. The trunk show will take place at the Richland County Event Center at 7 p.m. The public is invited to see Jalyssa perform her talent and perform with the drill team.

"The event will be a great send off before her trip to Orlando," stated Lisa Gorder, event organizer and Jalyssa's mother. Jalyssa will be competing for the 2012 Miss America Outstanding Teen title. Everyone is encouraged to come and show your support for Jalyssa before she is to compete at this prestigious pageant.

Free will donations will be accepted to help with expenses.

The Roundup To Launch New Website Aug. 10

ND Third Lottery Deer Application Deadline Aug. 10

Deer hunters interested in applying for a first, second, third or fourth license have to submit a third lottery application no later than Aug. 10.

Successful applicants in the first lottery will receive their license in mid-August.

Hunters can apply online, or print out an application, at the North Dakota Game and Fish Department's website, gf.nd.gov. Paper applications are also available from Game and Fish offices, county auditors and license vendors. Residents and nonresidents are eligible to apply.

After the third lottery drawing, Game and Fish will issue any remaining licenses on a first-come, first-served basis.

Hunters can use additional concurrent season doe licenses during the archery season with a bow; the deer gun season with a bow, rifle, or muzzleloader; or during the muzzleloader season with a muzzleloader. These licenses are for antlerless deer only, and hunters must stay in the unit to which the license is assigned.

In addition, youth deer license hunters ages 14 and 15 may purchase additional concurrent season doe licenses to use during the youth season.

Last year, licenses were sold out in all but three units prior to opening day of deer gun season. Hunters are encouraged to apply early if they have a specific unit in mind.

The regular deer gun season starts at noon Nov. 4 and continues through Nov. 20.

Swan Hunt Application Available Online

The online application for North Dakota's 2011 tundra swan license lottery is available on the state Game and Fish Department's website, gf.nd.gov. The deadline for applying is Aug. 17.

Paper applications will be available the week of Aug. 1 from Game and Fish offices, county auditors and license vendors. Hunters can also apply by calling 800-406-6409. A service fee is added for license applications made by phone.

The statewide tundra swan hunting season is Oct. 1–Jan. 1, 2012. A total of 2,200 licenses are available. Successful applicants will receive a tag to take one swan during the season. Since swans are classified as waterfowl, nonresidents may hunt them only during the period their nonresident waterfowl license is valid.

North Dakota residents and nonresidents are eligible to apply.

Some Hunting Season Openers Are Just Weeks Away

Some hunting season start dates are just weeks away. Here is a reminder for hunters and their families.

Archery hunting season for antelope, black bear, deer, elk, wolf and mountain lion - Sept. 3

Big horn sheep archery hunting season - Sept. 5

Intake Fishing Access Site Public Drinking Water Now In Compliance

The Department of Environmental Quality has determined that public drinking water at Intake Fishing Access Site is now in compliance with DEQ human drinking water standards.

Intake Fishing Access Site has met the requirements of the Public Notice Rule as described in the Administrative Rule of Montana 17.38.239. The site is open for day use and overnight camping as flood damage has been mitigated.

Deadline For Mountain Lion Hunters Is Aug. 31

The deadline is Aug. 31 to purchase a mountain lion hunting license for the general season, or to apply for the special limited-entry license drawing.

Mountain lion hunters may either choose to apply for a special license available through the drawing that is valid only in certain hunting districts—or they may purchase a general mountain lion license. Hunters cannot do both. Mountain lion hunting in most Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks Region 1 and 2 hunting districts will be only by special mountain lion licenses.

A general mountain lion license purchased over the counter after Aug. 31 may be obtained only at an FWP office or online at fwp.mt.gov under Online Services. Lion licenses purchased after Aug. 31 may not be used until five days after the license is issued.

Mountain lion hunters can apply for a special license at fwp.mt.gov under Online Service, or they may apply at regional FWP office. Those who prefer to apply by mail can go to the FWP website on the Hunting page and click Licenses and Permits for a mail-in paper form.

McKenzie County 4-Hers Do Well At State Events

By Marcia Hellandsaas
NDSU Extension Agent, McKenzie/Dunn Counties

Andrina Turnquist, daughter of Erica and David Turnquist, Alexander, placed second out of 38 youth participating in the Junior Division of the State 4-H Consumer Choices Contest held July 26 at the McCabe United Methodist Church, Bismarck.

Teammate Karissa Monsen, daughter of Clayton and Vicki Monsen, Watford City, came in just behind Turnquist with a third place finish and Krystal Wold, daughter of Gary and Sue Wold, also of Watford City, and teammate, finished off in tenth place. Colby Dukart, son of Jennifer and Colby Dukart, Dunn Center, was also a team member.

This team finished second of 13 participating in the contest.

Katie Wold, daughter of Gary and Sue Wold, Watford City, placed eleventh out of 38 4-Hers participating in the Senior Division of this 4-H Consumer Choices Contest.

4-H Consumer Choices judging activities are designed to help youth develop decision making skills. Their ability to observe and evaluate written materials as well as reciting oral reasons to justify their decisions to determine their success in judging events.
