NDRA Rodeo Finals This Weekend

The two-day NDRA Rodeo Finals event will feature the talents of North Dakota's top 12 competitors in nine events, as they try to become the 2013 NDRA State Champion.

The event is taking place Sept. 13 - 14 with rodeo action starting at 7:00 p.m. Go-around prizes will be awarded to each night's top contestants. The beer garden opens Friday at 6:00 p.m.

Other events are scheduled for Saturday including the Watford City High School Club Rodeo at 9:00 a.m. along with a team roping event to follow at 10:00 a.m.

The Saturday NDRA Rodeo again starts at 7:00 p.m. with champions crowned during the evening performance.

Even if you're an avid rodeo-goer, this particular venue offers something a little different from your average outdoor arena. "Watching the rodeo indoors really gets you up close to the action. Many of these competitors are amateur performers who go professional. When you mix that with some of the best rodeo stock there is, watching it all from 50 feet away is really a good time," said Gene Veeder, a NDRA Rodeo Finals Committee member.

This year marks the celebration of 60 years of the North Dakota Rodeo Association with this being the 15th annual event taking place in Watford City.

"This has become one of North Dakota's premier western events, a place where you can meet most of North Dakota's amateur and high school rodeo contestants and fans in one big weekend of activities. Watford City has also added several new motels and an expanded shopping district so it should be an exciting new look for visitors," Veeder said.

Money generated from this event is part of an annual fundraiser that benefits a number of area organizations, including the Eagles Club, McKenzie County 4-H and the Oilers Hockey Club.

Rodeo stock were chosen by judges and performers and selected from a wide variety of stock contractors to help ensure the best competition.

Admission is $12 for adults, $8 for students ages 7-18 and children 6 and under are free.

Sidney Livestock Market Center Continues with Improvements to Facility

September 1st, 2012 Prewitt & Company purchased Yellowstone Livestock in Sidney, MT. The Livestock Facility has been renamed Sidney Livestock Market Center, with Tim Larson taking over as manager. The staff has been working hard to create a competitive market place for this area's livestock. Many improvements are being made in the yards, old pens have been torn down and replaced with new fencing, water tanks, feeders and alleyways. The improved yards will make handling the cattle much easier, less stressful on livestock and most importantly much safer for the workers and animals. The project has been in the works all summer and is nearing completion just in time for the Fall Run.

Sidney Livestock Market Center would like to invite everyone to stop by on Wednesday, September 18th for their Customer Appreciation Barbecue at noon. Enjoy a delicious lunch of smoked brisket, salads and desserts, then check out all the improvements currently underway. Come early for the All Class Cattle Sale and yearling special, set to start at 9 am, then stay for the Fall Sheep sale at 3 pm following the cattle sale.

ND Landowners Seek Doe Hunters

The North Dakota Game and Fish Department is currently working with 18 landowners in 16 hunting units across the state who would like to host hunters with antlerless deer licenses in 2013.

Participating landowners are located in hunting units 2C, 2G2, 2I, 2J2, 2K2, 3A4, 3B3, 3C, 3D1, 3D2, 3E1, 3E2, 3F1, 3F2, 4B and 4E.

The program is not intended for buck hunters, but designed to direct hunters with antlerless licenses to specific areas to reduce deer populations.

Interested hunters can get their name on a list of possible participants by accessing the Game and Fish Department's website at gf.nd.gov. Hunters who do not have Internet access can call the department's main office in Bismarck at (701) 328-6300.

Hunters will provide their address, hunting unit(s) where they hold valid antlerless licenses, and if using rifle, muzzle-loader or bow. From this list the department will select the number of hunters landowners have agreed to host. These hunters will be sent the landowner's name, phone number and any information relating to the landowner's specific situation.

Hunters must have a valid 2013 deer gun license – the Game and Fish Department does not provide a hunting license with this program.

Not everyone who signs up will end up with a new place to hunt, because not everyone's schedule will match up with a landowner's, and more people will likely put their name on the list than there are openings. Currently, participating landowners have openings for about 170 doe hunters.

North Dakota's 2013 regular deer gun season runs from Nov. 9-25. In addition, the archery season extends through Jan. 5, 2014; the youth season is Sept. 20-29; and muzzle-loader runs from Nov. 29 – Dec. 15.

9/11 Day of Service and Remembrance

Montanans Commemorate Through Volunteerism

Submitted by Marissa Perry

In honor of the September 11th Day of Service and Remembrance, the Governor's Office of Community Service encourages Montanans to join statewide efforts to commemorate 9/11 victims, survivors, and emergency responders.

Citizens are encouraged to participate in the 9/11 Day of Service and Remembrance by thanking those who served, helping a neighbor in need, or joining a community service project.

"Throughout Montana's history, we have been blessed with patriots, men and women willing to give of themselves so that this nation, and the freedom upon which it was founded, might live on," said Lieutenant Governor John Walsh. "Montanans don't need a reason to serve-- they do it every day and in a variety of ways. I am truly encouraged to see all of the service events scheduled around our wonderful state, but I am certainly not surprised."

National Service members in Montana including AmeriCorps, AmeriCorps VISTA and Senior Corps have organized service projects across the state to honor the 9/11 Day of Service and Remembrance and invite citizens to participate. Events include:

Senior Corps and Food Corps are teaming up in Butte to collect extra produce from community gardens and deliver it to the Butte Emergency Food Bank on Wednesday, 9/11, between 9am and 12pm. Contact Michele Brennick at 406-533-2508.

Senior Corps is hosting a Harvest for Seniors in Miles City and Sidney to collect extra produce and provide it to seniors in need on Wednesday, 9/11. Contact Betty Vail (Miles City) at 406-234-0505 or Karen O'Dell (Sidney) at 406-433-4967.

AmeriCorps VISTA members are holding a toiletry drive in Helena from 3pm to 8pm on Wednesday, 9/11 at Safeway, Albertsons on Fee Street, and Vans Thriftway grocery stores. Contact Jessi Sheava at 406-444-3925.

Senior Corps is providing a Heroes Lunch at Park County Senior Center in Livingston to honor current military and fallen veterans, local law enforcement, fire departments and those in public service from 12:30pm to 1:30pm on Wednesday, 9/11. They will also be collecting gifts for service men and women. Contact Shannon Burke at 406-222-2281 or Brooke Cottongim at 406-333-2276.

AmeriCorps VISTA members are collecting toiletries at grocery stores across town to benefit the YWCA in Missoula on Wednesday, 9/11.

Senior Corps, Human Resource Development Council, and the Gallatin Valley Food Bank are hosting a joint Blanket Drive at the mall in Bozeman on Wednesday, 9/11.

A full list of service activities can be found here or at serve.mt.gov.

The September 11th National Day of Service and Remembrance is the culmination of efforts originally launched in 2002 by the 9/11 nonprofit MyGoodDeed with wide support by the 9/11 community and leading national service organizations. This effort first established the tradition of engaging in charitable service on 9/11 as an annual and forward-looking tribute to the 9/11 victims, survivors, and those who rose up in service in response to the attacks.

In 2009, Congress designated September 11th as a National Day of Service and Remembrance under bipartisan federal law, and charged the Corporation for National and Community Service with helping to support this effort across the country.

The Governor's Office of Community Service expands and promotes national service and volunteerism in Montana and engages citizens in service and emergency preparedness.

Deer Season for Young Hunters Opens Sept. 20 in North Dakota

Friday, Sept. 20 at noon signals the start of a nine-and-a-half day deer hunting season for youth ages 12-15.

Licensed residents ages 12 and 13, and 11-year-olds who turn age 12 in 2013, are allowed to hunt statewide, but only for antlerless white-tailed deer. Resident deer gun hunters age 14 or 15, and 13-year-olds who turn age 14 in 2013, with a "youth season" license, can hunt statewide for any deer, except antlerless mule deer in units 3B1, 3B2, 4A, 4B, 4C, 4D, 4E and 4F. In addition, a special license is required to hunt antlered mule deer in those same units.

After opening day, hunting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset. Solid daylight fluorescent orange vests or coats, and hats are required for all young hunters and their adult mentors.

Each youth deer hunter must be under direct supervision of an adult while in the field.

In addition to the deer license, hunters must possess a general game and habitat license and hunting certificate.

The youth deer season closes Sunday, Sept. 29.

Kids First! Carnival Looking for Interested Vendors

Submitted by Nicole Hackley

The Sidney Education Foundation, Inc. and the Richland County Family Resource Center have teamed up again to sponsor the fourth annual Kids First! Carnival this fall. Both of these groups focus on children, families and education, forming a perfect partnership to bring an exciting activity for families in the Sidney area to enjoy.

The carnival will be held Saturday, October 26, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Richland County Fair Event Center. The groups are currently looking for community organizations to rent a booth at the carnival and host a children's game, or to provide a food booth. Booth rental will be $20, and ticket sales will be reimbursed back to the organizations. This is a great opportunity to do a fundraiser, as well as take part in a fun, safe and exciting community event for families!

For more information on booth rental or sponsorship of the event, contact Elaine Stedman at 480-5719 or elaine59270@yahoo.com. We are looking forward to working with you in this wonderful event for our community!

Brent Flory’s Art on Display at MonDak Heritage Center

The varied art work of the Blue Buffalo Artists will be on display at the MonDak Heritage Center in Sidney during the month of October.

Utah native Brent Flory loves to paint the honest reality of the western experience. Whether it’s cowboys, Native Americans, farmers, ranchers, or their families and animals, his goal is to portray their experiences as close to reality as possible. Quoting from Flory’s biography, he said, “People then were so much more connected to, or reliant on, the land, weather and nature. They appreciated it more because their lives depended on it.” Horses are also an important part of many of Flory’s paintings, recognizing the significant connection between man and horse for thousands of years.

Flory graduated from Brigham Young University with a B.F.A. in Illustration. His work has been in many solo and juried shows and has received many awards including Best of Show, Festival Choice Award and Silver Medal in oils at San Dimas, CA. Flory’s work has been featured in Equine Vision Magazine, with his painting “All I Need” on the cover. He has also been selected as the poster artist for the Dec. 2013 “Art of the American Cowboy Show” at the South Point in Las Vegas.

Flory lives with his wife and family on a ranch near Wall-sburg, UT. His work is in many private collections in the U.S., Canada and abroad. To view his exceptional art, go to www.brentfloryfineart.com.

First Human Case of West Nile Virus Confirmed in Yellowstone County

Submitted by Julie Brodhead
The Yellowstone City-County Health Department and the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services are reporting the first human case of West Nile Virus (WNV) in Yellowstone County and in Montana for 2013.

The case was diagnosed at a Billings hospital and confirmed last week. The patient, a Yellowstone County female resident in her fifties, did not require hospitalization and is expected to fully recover. The individual had no history of travel outside the state within the past month.

"West Nile Virus is most commonly found in people over 50 years old, but every Montanan should be taking precautionary measures to help prevent WNV infection," said DPHHS Director Richard Oppen.

In the U.S. this year, 497 human cases of WNV have been reported to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Of these cases, twenty have died.

The first indication of the presence of WNV in Montana this year occurred in mid-July when mosquitoes with WNV were found in Prairie County.

The first WNV positive bird was also detected at that time in Sheridan County. Horses with WNV infection were reported in late August from counties in central and eastern parts of the state.

Most people who become infected with WNV experience no symptoms. Some individuals may develop a mild illness, called West Nile fever, which may last for three to six days. Other individuals, fewer than 1 out of 150, may become severely infected with West Nile encephalitis or West Nile meningitis. Symptoms of this disease may include headache, rash, high fever, stiff neck, mental confusion, muscle weakness, tremors, convulsions, coma and paralysis. There is no available treatment for WNV infection other than supportive care. Individuals who develop any of these symptoms should see their healthcare provider.

DPHHS reminds Montanans to take precautions and protect against West Nile Virus by following the 5 Ds of WNV prevention.

The 5 Ds include:
DUSK/DAWN - mosquitoes are most active during this time. If possible, stay indoors during the early morning and evening hours.

If you must be outdoors when mosquitoes are most active, DRESS in long sleeves and pants.

Before going outdoors, remember to apply an insect repellent containing 25 to 35 % DEET when outdoors. Children ages 2-12 should use repellent with 10 percent DEET or less. DEET is recommended by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and is the most effective and best studied insect repellent available. Products containing picaridin and permethrin have also been found to be effective in repelling mosquitoes, as has oil of lemon eucalyptus.

To keep the mosquito population at bay around your home, DRAIN standing water in old tires, barrels, buckets, cans, clogged rain gutters, and other items that collect water. Change water in pet bowls, flowerpots, and bird-baths at least twice a week.

For more information about WNV protection and detection efforts, contact the Richland County Health Department, 433-2207, or the state Department of Public Health and Human Services, 444-0273.

2nd Annual Parade of Homes Set for September 29

By Dianne Swanson
Brenda Larson and the staff of Creative Solutions are busy putting the final touches on this year's Parade of Homes which will take place on Sunday, September 29. The project is a fundraiser for the Boys and Girls Club of Richland County to help them fund a much needed permanent home. Last year the event raised $10,000 and Larsen is hoping to increase that amount. Dura Supreme has generously agreed to sponsor the event again this year, allowing ALL ticket sales to go directly to the club.

Six local homeowners have graciously agreed to open their homes to the public. They are Lee & Kelly Alvstad, 118 15th Ave. SW, Sidney; Conrad & Linda Conradsen, 10761 CR 344, Savage; Justin and Tammy Jones, 303 2nd Ave. SW, Sidney; Dennis and Brenda Marker, 1576 11th Ave. SW, Sidney; Brady and Nicki Reuter, 11151 CR 345, Savage; Shawn and Tanya Rost, 136

Washington St., Crane. The homes highlight the work of talented local contractors, and mostly locally purchased materials.

Each home features remodeling based on the owner's style. The Jones house is a historical home which has been completely remodeled, Markers' remodel was inspired by their trip to Europe, Conradsen's home is a walking art gallery, and Alvstad's house has been completely flip flopped. Alvstads and Markers have garages the men will drool over, while some of the homes feature unique cool bathrooms. Reuters' home has fabulous custom texturing and a gorgeous wood staircase. Rosts took the old Tanglen house and completely redid the inside, while keeping some unique features such as the windows and exposed brick.

Participants may start at any home on the tour. Most of the homes have stairs and are not handicap accessible. Shoes and bare feet are not allowed. Booties will be available at each location.

The main contractors from each home hope to be on site, as well as representatives from Dura Supreme, Life Span Closets and more. Any contractor wishing to highlight their business with an ad in the Parade of Homes Booklet is asked to contact Larson as soon as possible at 488-1461.

Tickets are on sale now for just $15 at Creative Solutions, TriFecta Home Center, The Sidney Herald and the Boys and Girls Club of Richland County. Tickets will be available the day of the show at Creative Solutions for $20. At the last home on the tour, participants are asked to drop off their stamped tickets which will go into a drawing for the grand prize. Last year's winner was Joyce Wicorek of Fairview who won a knife set valued at over $500.

Plan now to spend a fun day touring these unique homes, and help the children of Richland County at the same time!

Global Simulcast Event With Bible Teacher Beth Moore To Be Hosted By Local Church On September 14th

Live Internet Streaming Event Features Life-Transforming Bible Teaching With Popular Women's Author And Speaker

Submitted by Jeane Clinton

LifeWay Christian Resources is slated to bring well-known Bible teacher and best-selling author Beth Moore to Circle Evangelical Church via simulcast on September 14, 2013. Circle Evangelical Church is serving as a host location for the Northeastern Montana and Western North Dakota area.

Living Proof Live, sponsored by Nashville-based publishing company LifeWay Christian Resources, will feature Moore's dynamic storytelling and passionate Bible teaching.

"Beth's teaching is some of the most profound I've ever heard," Kim Trobee, associate pastor to women at New Life Church in Colorado, said. "Her knowledge of the Word and her passionate delivery never fail to get right to the heart of the matter."

The event, which is now in its 15th year, both challenges and encourages women to grow deeply in their faith.

Join 250,000 women around the world for this live, global, Internet streaming event. The simulcast gives your church a front-row seat to one-of-a-kind Bible teaching and life-changing worship.

"I have served in women's ministry for over 20 years now, and there is just no other event like Living Proof Live," women's ministry leader Missy Kintzel said. "It is one event our women do not want to miss."

Moore has authored dozens of published Bible studies, books, and devotionals specifically for women for nearly two decades. Her latest LifeWay-published release, James: Mercy Triumphs, is a Bible study that equips women to put their faith in action. Moore's organization, Living Proof Ministries, is based out of Houston.

Dove-award winning musical artist Travis Cottrell, who also serves as worship pastor of Englewood Baptist Church in Jackson, Tenn., is slated to lead worship for the event.

Living Proof Live starts Saturday, September 14 at 9:00a.m. for registration and ends at 4:15p.m. Tickets are complimentary covering one full day of music and worship; sessions led by Beth Moore; and opportunities for fellowship with other women from the Northeast Montana/Western North Dakota community. Lunch will be included.

Please RSVP to: Ellen Jensen @ mejensen@mid-rivers.com, or call: (406)485-2956 or (406)937-5074.

JMAC – Building relationships within their community

Submitted by Tie Shank
In 2007 Jon McCreary laid it all on the line by selling everything he had and borrowing every penny he could to invest in the oilfield service business, JMAC Resources. Over the past six years JMAC has went through many changes and is now a very strong, well respected heavy civil and energy industry construction service company which holds a deep value in building relationships within their community.

McCreary and JMAC Resources employees honor the community where they live and work. In doing so, they are continuously involved in numerous community events and organizations. “Our success has given us all a great opportunity to give back to our community and to the less fortunate,” stated McCreary when interviewed earlier this year. It seems as though McCreary’s feelings are felt by many. In May 2013, Cone Communications and Echo Research did a study and found 82 percent of U.S. consumers consider corporate social responsibility when deciding which products or services to buy and where to shop.

In January 2013, JMAC rolled out a ‘pay it forward’ program and has actively participated in community organizations and events since. They purchased and delivered over 200 winter coats and snow pants to local public and private schools, held an inner company food and pajama drive for the Williston Salvation Army, participated in the Million Dollar Lanes Make A Wish Foundation fundraiser, donated $25,000 to the Williston Family Crisis

Shelter, participated in the Little League World Series ‘Chef of the Day’ concessions fundraiser and JMAC routinely has a strong employee presence in cleanup projects sponsored by the city and industry affiliates.

McCreary is proud of what JMAC and its employees have accomplished and extremely thankful to its customers and employees for their role in building the company.

Sidney Health Center Recognized For Providing Telemedicine To Area Residents

Pictured: Judy Reid, Sidney Health Center Telemedicine LPN and Lori Bigwood-Pecarina, Telemedicine RN from the Eastern Montana Telemedicine Network demonstrate the new equipment on Carla Bright, RN. The equipment was provided by Billings Clinic through a grant from the USDA to extend specialty medical services to communities in eastern Montana.

Submitted by Rita Steinbeisser

Sidney Health Center was recently recognized for 20 years of excellence in telemedicine services as a member of the Eastern Montana Telemedicine Network.

The Eastern Montana Telemedicine network is a mature telemedicine delivery system, providing the provision of medical care in 37 rural and frontier Montana communities. Currently, medical and mental health services comprise 71% of all network activity. Over 80 specialists and clinicians provide care in 21 specialty areas including: cardiology, oncology, nephrology, dermatology, pulmonary, rheumatology, physical medicine and rehab, neurology, genetics counseling, geriatrics, diabetes care, dietician services.

These medical consultations often save rural Montana residents in out-of-pocket travel expenses. In addition, mental health encounters are a vital service of the telemedicine network. With no psychiatrists practicing east of Billings, MT, access to telemental health service is critical. The availability of mental health services is truly a life line for rural and frontier residents in Montana.

"Telemedicine also gives our nurses at Sidney Health Center an opportunity to do continuing education online. We need 24 credits every two years," commented Judy Reid, telemedicine LPN. "Being able to do education here is essential to keeping our license requirements up-to-date."

Earlier this summer, the USDA designated rural development grant funds for telemedicine equipment that extended specialty medical services such as dermatology, allergy care and ear, nose and throat care to 16 rural communities in eastern Montana, including Sidney. Billings Clinic was the recipient of the $295,117 grant through the USDA that helped place equipment in these facilities and extend the specialty medical services.

Sidney Health Center continues to expand and offer telemedicine services to area residents as a community health benefit. Supporting the health and vitality of rural communities and the people who live and work in them is a top priority of the Eastern Montana Telemedicine Network. This service allows individuals who choose the rural lifestyle the opportunity to access comprehensive, high-quality health care in their home communities. Telemedicine connects communities across the miles to a robust, secure and sustainable healthcare network.
